REPORT ON THE WORKING OF THE LICENSED JUTE WAREHOUSE AND FIRE-BRIGADE ACT, 1910-1911

NOTIFICATION.

No. 885T. M.—The 21st September 1911.—The following is published for general information.

H. WHEELER,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. $\frac{1473A-1-11}{7619}$, dated Calcutta, the 11th July 1911.

From—F. L HALLIDAY, ESQ., C.I.E., M.V.O., Commissioner of Police, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit, in accordance with section 41, Act I of 1893, the following report on the working of the Fire Brigade, in the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta and in Howrah during the year 1910-11.

2. The force at the end of the year under review is shown in Appendix I attached. An extra European Assistant Engineer was sanctioned for head-quarters during the year under review, under Government of Bengal order No. 1052F.M., dated 16th October 1909, and was entertained from the 7th July 1910.

A statement showing receipts and expenditure of the Fire Brigade for 1910-11 is enclosed.

The year opened with a balance of Rs. 37,813-8-10: the receipts amounted to Rs. 1,51,901-11-4 and the total expenditure to Rs. 1,34,192-0-4, leaving a balance of Rs. 55,523-3-10 at the close of the year.

RECEIPTS.

Fees under Petroleum Act show an increase of Rs. 566 over the estimate. No judicial fines were realised under the Act and the sale proceeds of unserviceable stores, horses, etc., show an increase of Rs. 633-11-4 over the estimate. There were no receipts for hire of engines during the year, the net result being an actual increase in receipts over the estimate by Rs. 999-11-4.

EXPENDITURE.

(a) Under the head "Establishment" there was a decrease of Rs. 8,083-3-3 as compared with the estimate. The decrease is due mainly to the following reasons:—

(i) Saving of Rs. 3,472-6 was effected owing to non-payment of contribution towards pay and leave allowances of the Superintendent, Reserve Force.

(ii) Saving of Rs. 1,761, owing to non-payment of grain compensation allowance to the men, as the same was abolished during the year.

(iii) Saving of Rs. 830 in the pay of khalasis. This was principally due to vacancies existing in the rank.

(iv) Saving of Rs. 1,742 in the pay of the European staff of the Brigade. This was effected owing mainly to the employment of new men as engineers and driver on the minimum pay of the appointments which fell vacant consequent on the dismissal of an engineer and the promotion of the driver.

(b) The total expenditure under the head "Contingencies" amounted to Rs. 91,061-13-6 against a budget grant of Rs. 1,11,553, showing a decrease of Rs. 20,491-2-6.

Out of the sum of Rs. 45,000, provided in the budget for the purchase of motor steam-engine and motor tender, the sum of Rs. 25,915-9-3 remained unexpended at the close of the year, the price of the engine and tender having not been paid in full, and the sum of Rs. 6,500 provided in the budget for construction of the Fire Brigade quarters in the new Garden Reach Thana compound was not paid to the Public Works Department during the year.

Canvas delivery hose valued at Rs. 11,967 was purchased during the year against the sanctioned budget grant of Rs. 3,000. This purchase was emergent to make up shortage in the stock of delivery hose.

(c) Under head "Other charges" there was an increase of Rs. 2,864-6-1 due to increased expenditure for water pressure.

4. One hundred and thirty fires of all degrees occurred during the year 1910-11, against 125 in 1909-10 and 170 in 1908-09. Of these 27 were serious fires in the town, river and docks, 17 in the suburbs and 6 in Howrah. Seven false alarms of fire were received. There were further two fires at which the Brigade attended, outside the jurisdiction, one a village at Tollygunge and one at the Baranagar North Jute Mill. There were also 78 petty fires, 26 in the town, on the river and in the docks, 44 in the suburbs, and 8 in Howrah.

Fourteen of the total number of fires occurred in buildings licensed under the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act, I of 1893.

WITH reference to the fire which occurred in No. 4 shed, Kidderpore Docks, on Wednesday, 2nd November 1910, I am desired by the Commissioners in meeting to ask you to convey their thanks to the officers and men of the Calcutta Fire Brigade for the excellent services rendered by them in the extinction of the fire, and especially to Mr. Dundas, officiating Commissioner of Police, who personally directed the operations until the fire was under complete control.

A letter testifying to the appreciation of the excellent work done by the Fire Brigade is reproduced below:—

Calcutta, dated the 11th January 1911.

From—MESSRS. GRAHAM & Co., Agents, Bucknall Steamership Lines, Limited, Hansa Lines, Calcutta,
To—The Deputy Commissioner of Police.

S. S. Kabinga.

WE desire to place on record, on behalf of the owners of the above steamer, the Commmander and ourselves, our appreciation of the very excellent work done by the Calcutta Fire Brigade in the recent fire on board the above steamer.

Apart from the fact that we found them extremely willing and courteous and always eager to do their best in the interest of saving the steamer, they were called upon at times to work in the burning hold in an atmosphere, which, owing to the fumes caused by the burning cargo, was almost enough to suffocate them. During the fire the men of the Fire Brigade were frequently pulled out of the hold in an insensible condition, but after being given time to recover, would again renew their efforts in fighting the fire with the utmost vigour.

We consider it was due to the good work done by them that the fire, which at one period looked very serious, was kept under control. In the opinion of the Master of the above steamer, who has had other experiences of fires on board vessels with other Fire Brigades, the efficiency of the Calcutta Fire Brigade is equal to that of any he has ever seen.

We might mention that unless you have any objection, we propose publishing this letter in the Calcutta newspapers.

We regret owing to pressure of business we have not addressed you earlier on this subject.

(6) 5th December.—Strand Bank Jute Press, Chitpur, a godown containing about 12,000 bales of jute—Rs. 5,00,000. Fire lasted 151 hours and 20 minutes.

(7) 10th December.—Sahib Bazar station, Port Trust Railway, a corrugated iron godown containing jute—Rs. 95,000. Fire lasted 5 hours and 30 minutes.

(8) 14th January.—On board S. S. Malakhand, No. 7 Berth, Port Commissioners' Docks, bales of jute in No. 4 hold—Rs. 5,000. Fire lasted 5 hours and 30 minutes.

(9) 2nd February.—No. 11 shed, Port Commissioners' Docks, one corrugated iron shed containing jute—Rs. 40,000. Fire lasted 6 hours. Property insured.

(10) 16th January.—Calcutta Hydraulic Jute Press, Chitpur, bales of jute damaged by fire and water—Rs. 10,000. Fire lasted 5 hours.

5. Repairs.—During the year under review no important repair work to the engines has been necessary. All petty repairs were done by the Fire Brigade staff.

6. Two turn-outs consisting of a motor fire-pump and tender and one steam fire-engine, a hose cart, a brake, one water tower and fire escape with 15 horses and all necessary appliances, are always kept in readiness at head-quarters in case of a call.

7. Payments by Municipalities.—In the year under report the percentage fixed by Government as payable by the Corporation of Calcutta and the several municipalities concerned were as follows:—

				Rs.
Calcutta Corporation ...	20·267	70	per cent.	1,04,770
Chitpur and Cossipore Municipality	3	15	"	22,451

9. Prosecutions.—Three licenses were granted under section 36, Act I of 1893, to let off fire works, rockets, etc. Two licenses were cancelled. Two persons were convicted and fined for letting off fire works under section 66, Act IV of 1866.

10. Water-supply.—The water used by the Brigade is obtained from the street mains within the jurisdiction of the Calcutta Corporation, but at Howrah, Cossipore, Chitpur, Garden Reach and Manicktola where there is no unfiltered water laid on, water has to be obtained from tanks and in some cases from the canal or river Hooghly direct, and in these latter areas the work of the Fire Brigade is seriously hampered.

11. Telephones and fire alarms.—At the headquarters, Lall Bazar, there is a telephone exchange with 62 connections (and space for 38 more) to all police and fire-stations. The direct communication is principally with police-stations and pumping stations and also to the Port Commissioners' fire-float, the East Indian Railway goods-sheds, central telephone exchange and telegraph office.

The East Indian Railway goods-sheds are in direct telephonic communication with Howrah fire-station and also have a fire alarm (the only one in Calcutta) at the fire station. Besides the telephone for reporting fires, there are look-outs at all the fire-stations where steam or manual engines are kept.

At headquarters and Howrah tell-tale clocks continue to be used on the look-out towers as a check.

12. New fire appliances.—On the 29th January 1911 a motor fire tender was received. It is 45 horse-power motor, capable of travelling at the rate of 35 miles an hour, and is fitted with an auxiliary pump of the positive rotary type, with a capacity of 300 gallons per minute, has 65 feet of flexible rubber suction hose and carries a 35-foot fire ladder. It was built by H. Simonis and Company, Fire Engineers to the Commercial Car Company, London. This machine has since its arrival attended eight fires, has travelled in all about 150 miles and has proved itself, under severe tests of deep lifts and long leads of delivery hose amounting in one case to 1,200 feet, in every respect a first class fire-fighting machine. A second motor fire-engine, also ordered by me whilst in England, was received on the 2nd May 1911.

13. Calls.—Calls to the number of 137 were recorded during the year, being an increase of 12 over the previous year. The above figures include nine river and mill fires attended by the Brigade, assisted by the Port Commissioners' fire-floats.

The distance travelled to and from fires by the Brigade was 276 miles. Seventy-five fires were attended by the Brigade during the year. The average distance travelled per fire was 3·673 miles.

14. Fatalities.—During the year two fatalities occurred at fires :—

(1) 30th November, at No. 1 Raj Mohun Bose's Lane, a fire which broke out in a godown among some gunny bags: an old man named Din Mahomed, aged about 60 years, said to have been drunk, was burnt to death in his room

(2) 15th January, at No. 1 Middle Road, Entally: a man named Shaik Hasnoo died in hospital from the effects of burns received at the above fire.

15. Miscellaneous.—There is a forge attached to the Brigade which continued to be very useful. Four engineers attached to the Brigade hold licenses to drive motor cars. I attempted to arrange with the Sibpur College to train some of the Fire Brigade staff in motor engine work, but the fees asked were prohibitive. All the horses in the Brigade have been fitted with patent quick-hitching harness.

16. Mr. J. Milne, Chief Engineer, resigned his post on the 14th April 1910, and Mr. W. Phillips was appointed to act as Chief Engineer from the above date and continued to hold the post at the end of the year. He has been indefatigable in the discharge of his duties and has done much, under rather adverse circumstances, to improve the efficiency of the Brigade.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith copies of the reports on the working of the Licensed Jute Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act I (B. C.) of 1893, for the year ending the 31st March 1911, in the Cossipore-Chitpur, Maniktala and Garden Reach Municipalities.

No. 901, dated Municipal Office, Talla, the 14th July 1911.

From—RAI KRIPA NATH DUTT BAHADUR, Chairman, Cossipore-Chitpur Municipality,

To—The Magistrate of the 24-Parganas, Alipore.

WITH reference to your letter No. 1955-1M. of 1911, dated the 26th May 1911, I have the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Jute Warehouse and the Fire Brigade Act within this Municipality during the year 1910-11, together with the statements of receipts and disbursements and of the Licensed Warehouses in the forms prescribed in Government Order No. 386T.—M., dated the 27th May 1910, and your letter No. 280-11M., dated 21st December 1910.

2. The rate of the licensed fee levied on the warehouses was increased in the year of report, from Rs. 3 to Rs. 4 per cent. to enable the Commissioners to raise a sum which, added to the contribution they proposed to make from their general fund, would go to meet the demand of the Commissioner of Police for their proportionate share of the charge for the maintenance of the Metropolitan Fire Brigade.

3 The total receipts from the fees and the rates specified in statement I amounted to Rs. 17,592-4-3. The demand of the Commissioner of Police for the year being Rs. 22,451, the Municipal Commissioners had to pay Rs. 4,858-11-9 from their general funds.

4. The Commissioners did not levy any rates under section 25 (1), (b) and (c) of the Licensed Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act. Neither did they receive, during the year of report, any fines under the Act, as will be seen from statement I submitted herewith.

5. The warehouses licensed during the year of report are shown in statement II.

2. The revenue during the year under review amounted to Rs. 3,114-4-3.

3. The annexed statement will show the number of warehouses and licenses issued during the year under review.

4. License fees levied on jute werehouses at 4 and 6 per cent. on the annual value of the holdings and at 10 per cent. on trades of other descriptions mentioned in the statement, and the fees were duly paid.

5. The jute godowns, firewood, packing case, hay and straw depôts are mostly situated near the Circular Canal which forms the northern, western and southern boundaries of this Municipality. Soorah Jute Mill (Messrs. W. M. Briggs and Co. Jute Mill has now been closed) and Messrs. Landale & Clark Co.'s Jute Mills are the three mills within this Municipality situated in the north of Narkeldanga and Maniktala Main Road.

6. The mutation fees of Rs. 5 for the year 1910-11 has duly been levied.

No. 100G.M., dated the 17th June 1911.

From—H. B. Poole, Esq., Chairman, Garden Reach Municipality,

To—The Magistrate of the 24-Parganas.

With reference to your No. M. 1955—1 of 1911, dated the 26th ultimo, I have the honour to submit the following report on the working of the Licensed Jute Warehouse and Fire Brigade Act in this Municipality for the year 1910-11 together with statements I and II in prescribed form.

2. During the year under report the total revenue from jute warehouse fees and from rate under section 25 (b) of the Fire Brigade Act as shown in statement I was Rs. 1,659-10. The amount of contribution paid in compliance with the requisition made by the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, was Rs. 3,742. There was thus a deficit of Rs. 2,082-6, which was met from the general funds of the Municipality. The deficit was a little larger this year owing to the fact that the Superintendent, Army Remount Depôt, and the Commissioners for the port of Calcutta withheld payment of the amount due from them.

In levying the jute warehouse fees the limitations prescribed by the provisos to section 10 of the Fire Brigade Act were strictly observed.

3. The rates at which the fees were levied were 3·4 per cent. on the annual value of all large warehouses, Rs. 5 per cottah of all wood and straw depôts and one-half percentum on the annual value of all busti lands with huts, if any, on them. The rate of license fee in respect of large warehouses was raised from 2·9 per cent. to 3·4 per cent. in order to meet the increased demand of the Commissioner of Police. While the contribution paid by this Municipality is being increased every year inspite of the fact that the number of warehouses within the Municipality has decreased, the Commissioners again protest against this most unjust tax. That the benefits derived from the Calcutta Fire Brigade are not commensurate with the amount contributed towards its maintenance, must be evident to any one capable of viewing the situation disinterestedly.

4. A list of licensed warehouses within the Municipality during the year under review is given in statement II.

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE EXCISE DEPARTMENT IN BENGAL DURING THE YEAR 1910-11.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 238 T.—S.R.—The 23rd September 1911.—The following extracts from the Report of the Commissioner of Excise and Salt on the administration of the Excise Department in Bengal during the year 1910-11 and from the letter from the Board of Revenue reviewing the Report are published for general information.

H. WHEELER,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 4124B., dated Calcutta, the 28th August 1911.

From—W. A. MARR, ESQ., I.C.S., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P., Miscellaneous Revenue Department,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Financial Department.

Member in charge:
THE HON'BLE MR. D. J. MACPHERSON, C.I.E., I.C.S.

I AM directed by the Board of Revenue to submit the report of the Commissioner of Excise, Bengal, on the administration of the Excise Department during the year 1910-11.

* * * * * *

3. Administrative changes.—The most important administrative changes which took place during the year were:—

(1) the extension of the contract system of supplying spirits to the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions (excepting certain parts of Shahabad, Champaran and Muzaffarpur);

(2) the closure of outstills in the Khondmals subdivision of the district of Angul in deference to the wishes of the Khonds who took a vow to abstain from using liquor;

(3) the taxation of pachwai for the first time in the district of Sambalpur, and the withdrawal from the districts of the 24-Parganas, Nadia, Jessore and Khulna of the privilege of home-brewing of pachwai under license;

(4) the grant to respectable chemists and druggists doing wholesale business in the manufacture of medicines, chemicals or drugs of the privilege of obtaining locally manufactured rectified spirit at the reduced rate of duty of Rs. 7-13 per L.P. gallon for their business;

(5) the imposition of excise restrictions on the manufacture of perfumes and toilet preparations from or with duty-paid plain foreign spirit;

(6) the introduction of the new method of denaturation of spirits with light caoutchoucine and mineral pyridine bases;

(7) the introduction of Rajshahi ganja, exclusively, into the district of Sambalpur at a duty of Rs. 7 per seer, in place of Khandwa ganja with a duty of Rs. 5 per seer; and

(8) the raising of the rate of duty on country spirit in the towns of Cuttack, Balasore, Puri, Monghyr and Jamalpur, and in the urban tracts of the Shahabad district with effect from the 1st April 1910.

4. Local Advisory Committees.—Local committees were appointed in 30 mufassal towns, with a population of 20,000 or upwards, to advise the Collectors as to the number and sites of liquor shops to be licensed for the current year. It is understood that, except in a few instances, there was a preponderance of the non-official element in these committees. From a separate communication received from the Excise Commissioner it appears that out of 42 cases in which the local committees recommended withdrawal or removal of shops, in 29 cases the recommendations were at once accepted, and in six the recommendations were noted for action as soon as possible. In the remaining seven cases the committees' recommendations were not accepted, and in each of these cases the reasons put forward for withdrawal or removal were fully considered by the Collector of the district, the Divisional Commissioner and the Commissioner of Excise before final rejection.

The details given in the Excise Commissioner's report as regards the action taken in respect of individual districts show that, in the matter of sites, due regard was paid to the wishes of the people in the localities concerned.

In Calcutta the sites of shops had been considered by a committee which sat in 1909-10 in connection with the triennial settlements which have been made with effect from the 1st April 1910. No further committee was therefore appointed for the current year.

During the year it was considered whether, in view of the difficulties encountered by license-holders in obtaining suitable sites for liquor shops and the desirability of improving the structural conditions and sanitary surroundings of such shops generally, it would be advisable for Government to acquire sites or to lease suitable premises for a term of years, disposing of the right to use them along with the vend license. After consulting Local Governments, the Government of India have decided that, while the general adoption of a policy of acquiring sites or premises on behalf of the State is both unnecessary and inexpedient, the local authorities should, in exceptional cases and subject to the sanction of the Local Government or other superior controlling authority, be allowed discretion in the matter of acquiring sites or premises for shops by purchase or lease as local conditions may require.

5. Revenue.—In round figures the total receipts of the year amounted to 180 lakhs of rupees against 168 lakhs in the preceding year, showing an increase of 12 lakhs. The receipts were made up of 88 lakhs in duty and 92 lakhs in license-fees against 76 lakhs and 92 lakhs, respectively, in the previous year. Country spirit, ganja and opium account for 59·5 per cent., 18·2 per cent., and 14·8 per cent., of the total revenue of the year, being (except in the case of ganja) very slightly less than the percentages in the preceding year. The receipts under country spirit show an increase of 4¼ lakhs of rupees, or 4·9 per cent., under ganja 3 lakhs, or 10·4 per cent., and under opium, more than three-quarters of a lakh, or 3·2 per cent. The incidence of taxation per proof gallon of spirit under the contract and central distillery systems taken together was Rs. 4·9 against Rs. 5·6 in the previous year, and the average annual fee for each outstill was Rs. 2,410 against Rs. 2,048 in the preceding year. The incidence of the excise revenue was 5 annas 5 pies per head of the population against 4 annas 11 pies in the preceding year. After making due allowance for difference in the population on which the calculations are based, the result is a real increase in the taxation per head.

6 Result of settlements.—There was a net increase of over 5½ lakhs of rupees in the total license-fees at which country spirit shops have been settled for the current year. The increase, which followed a heavy decrease of over 8 lakhs in the previous year, appears to be due mainly to improved agricultural conditions. In Calcutta there was an increase of about 2¼ lakhs under the head "Other excisable articles," which is attributed chiefly to a marked rise in the license-fees obtained for the opium shops at the last settlements. The retail selling price of opium has already gone up by about 2 annas per tola on the introduction of the restrictive system, and the increase in license-fees for the current year must tend to raise the price of opium to the consumer still higher. Vigilance against resort to illicit sources of supply will therefore be specially necessary.

7. Country spirit.—If the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions (except Champaran) be left out of account because of a change from the outstill to the contract distillery system which took effect from the year under review, the statistics of duty-paid country spirit show 1,025,108 proof gallons consumed in contract and central distillery areas against 937,217 proof gallons in the preceding year. In Calcutta the increase was 30,889 proof gallons, which is attributed to the large extent of the displacement of cheap foreign spirit on account of the recent enhancement of duty and the new restrictions as to strength, compounding and bottling. It was also, as expected, partly due to cheaper prices of food grains. At the same time the large decrease in consumption which occurred in Calcutta in 1908-09 has not yet been made up. There was a large increase, aggregating 52,610 gallons L. P., in the three districts of the Bhagalpur Division in which the contract distillery system had been introduced in the preceding year. In that year also bad harvests and high prices curtailed consumption. These causes had ceased to operate during the year under report, and the increase appears to be merely a reversion to the normal. There was a decrease of 15,552 gallons L.P. in Manbhum accompanied by a rise in the number of cases of illicit distillation from 54 to 248. The decrease in consumption is attributed entirely to the continued depression in the lac and coal trades, but the Deputy Commissioner is also of opinion that the higher taxation of country spirit under the contract system is acting as an incitement to illicit distillation and resort to other intoxicants. The Commissioner of Excise is reluctant to accept the latter view. It is observed that the number of cases of illicit distillation detected in this district rose from 54 to as many as 248. There seems ground to suspect therefore that illicit practices have been prevalent in the district. The matter requires careful enquiry, and the Excise Commissioner promises a further report on the result. In dealing with it comparison should be made with the state of things in the neighbouring Asansol subdivision of Burdwan, which is also largely affected by the condition of the coal trade.

The Excise Commissioner discusses the effect of the introduction of the contract distillery system into the Patna and Tirhut Divisions which took effect from the beginning of the year under report. As in the neighbouring division of Bhagalpur in the preceding year, the change was accompanied by a heavy fall in consumption, due, in large measure, to prejudice created against the new liquor. This prejudice appears to have been so great that apprehension was entertained by the Excise Commissioner that the people might resort to illicit sources of supply or take to more harmful intoxicants, such as hemp drugs and cocaine. Illicit practices were detected both in the Patna and Tirhut Divisions to a considerably greater extent than previously, and there is some ground for suspecting that the change did lead some people to take to ganja instead. The matter should be carefully watched by the Excise Commissioner and Collectors during the current year; and the degree of success which may be found to attend the spread of the interesting kanthidhari movement in Bihar for abstention from social excesses, specially the consumption of liquor should be noticed.

It is satisfactory to find that the experiment of abolishing the country spirit shops in the Khondmals subdivision of Angul has been attended with good results, and that the Khonds have so far been able to maintain their vow to abstain from using liquor. The experiment should continue to engage the attention of the Commissioner of Excise during the current year.

8. Minimum prices.—In order to meet the legitimate demand of the people for weak cheap liquor, spirit of 70° U.P. was introduced in the distillery area of the district of Sambalpur with effect from the beginning of the current year, and a minimum price of 3 annas per bottle was fixed for it in four town shops of the district. Towards the close of the year minimum prices for the sale of country spirit were also fixed in the Chapra town shops at 1½ annas, 3 annas, 6 annas and 9 annas per bottle for liquor of the strengths of 85° U.P., 70° U.P., 50° U.P., and 30° U.P., respectively. This was done with the object of stopping unhealthy rivalry amongst certain shop-keepers who had been endeavouring to push consumption by under-selling each other. The working of the measure should be watched and noticed in the next Administration Report.

9. Convictions for drunkenness.—A comparative statement showing the number of persons convicted for drunkenness in municipalities has, for the first time, been annexed to the report in compliance with the wishes of the Government of India. The proportion of the number of persons convicted to each 10,000 of the town population shows great divergencies in different parts of the Province and even in the different municipalities of the same district. For instance, the proportion in the Calcutta town proper was only 34 in the year under review, while in the suburbs of Calcutta it was 207. As compared with the figures of the previous year there was a marked increase in the number of cases in the Muzaffarpur and Colgong municipalities. It is notorious that the fluctuations depend chiefly upon the methods and comparative energy of the local police, and no reliance whatever can be placed upon the statistics in attempting to draw any definite conclusions regarding the prevalence of drunkenness. There was only one case in which there was occasion to take any action against vendors for permitting drunkenness on licensed premises.

10. Tari.—In accordance with the recommendation made by the Indian Excise Committee of 1905-06 in paragraph 221 of their report, considerable reductions have been made in the number of tari shops in the Bihar districts during the last five years, but the consequent increased competition for the remaining shops has nevertheless resulted in a substantial increase in revenue. Sufficient progress in this direction, however, has not yet been made in the districts of Patna and Darbhanga.

The Excise Commissioner's report on the question of continuing the practice of issuing season tari licenses will be awaited by the Board.

The system of remittances of tari fees by money order in the Bihar districts is said to be working, on the whole, satisfactorily. The fact that the filled-up money order forms supplied to the pasis in Muzaffarpur are seldom used by them, as reported by the Excise Commissioner, demands some enquiry, since it suggests that the local post office officials refuse to accept these forms in order that they may obtain fees for filling up fresh ones.

11. Pachwai.—The total revenue from pachwai increased during the year by about 1¼ lakhs of rupees. The increase was due to keener competition in certain districts and to the cheaper price of rice. Some measure of success has attended the commencement of the task of bringing the manufacture and retail sale of pachwai in the district of Sambalpur under excise control, but it seems clear that complete success in this direction cannot be achieved until the excise preventive staff in that district is strengthened. Proposals for its reorganization and strengthening were submitted to Government in January 1910, but orders on the subject have not as yet been received.

The prohibition against the receipt by pachwai vendors of grain in barter for pachwai, which has been in force in the districts of the Sonthal Parganas and Birbhum, was extended during the year to the districts of Bankura and Midnapore.

The Commissioner of the Bhagalpur Division, Mr Walsh, in reviewing the Excise Administration Reports of the districts in his Division, suggests the desirability of reducing the number of pachwai shops in the Sonthal Parganas. He writes:—

"I should like to see the number of pachwai shops reduced in the interests of the Sonthals, though it will mean a decrease of revenue. There is no doubt that their introduction into the Sonthal Parganas has led to an increase of drunkenness and to money being spent on pachwai by those who cannot afford it. When the Sonthal was dependent on home-brewed pachwai, the women of the household who brew it saw that the stock of grain was not unduly used for the purpose, and also that no deleterious ingredients were used, and it is generally reported that the home-brewed pachwai is less intoxicating than the shop-brewed pachwai."

A report on the subject will be asked for from the Excise Commissioner.

12. Foreign liquor.—The enhancement of the duty on imported liquors from the 25th February 1910 seems to have affected to some extent the imports of some of the more expensive brands of spirits (e.g., whisky and rum) and wines. But its effect is clearly visible in the case of the cheaper spirits, while the restrictions imposed on compounding, blending and bottling and the fixing of minimum strengths have had the desired effect of checking the importation of plain and rectified spirits for the local manufacture of cheap spurious foreign liquor.

A large increase observable in the number of licenses issued for the sale of foreign liquor in Calcutta is merely nominal: they are current only for particular entertainments and take the place of special permits formerly issued.

* * * * * *

14. Ganja.—There was a net increase of 438 maunds in the quantity of ganja consumed in the Province during the year: this was shared by all but four districts. Nearly half the increase, namely, 203 maunds, took place in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions, where the contract distillery system was introduced last year. The question whether this change has had any effect in driving some people to take ganja instead of contract spirits has already been noticed: several Collectors and the Commissioner of Excise are of opinion that it has, and the matter requires careful enquiry.

Special efforts taken to suppress the smuggling of ganja from the Garhjat Mahals into Puri appear to have been attended with some success: the natural result must be an increase in the consumption of the licit drug.

* * * * * *

17. Opium.—The consumption of opium in the Province as a whole and in Calcutta remained practically unchanged during the year. The restriction imposed, with effect from the 1st April 1909, on the issues of opium to shops in Calcutta and the adjoining districts of the 24-Parganas, Howrah and Hooghly, with a view to checking smuggling into Burma, appears to have met with considerable success. The limited quantities of opium issued from the treasuries seem to have left little margin for sale to smugglers, who have apparently been forced to shift their centres of operation to distant up-country places. There was a large increase in the seizures in Calcutta of illicit opium smuggled in this way.

The habit of opium-smoking does not appear to be on the increase. In consequence, however, of the resolutions adopted by the International Opium Commission at Shanghai, measures have recently been proposed to Government with a view to restricting the practice generally and to suppressing, at least as an experimental measure, its indulgence in saloons.

Morphia does not seem to be used as an intoxicant, except to a limited extent in certain towns and districts. Restrictions have been imposed with effect from the 1st June 1911 on the importation of all opium preparations, so that they can be brought from outside British India only by a few authorized importers and by channels other than the post.

The Excise Commissioner mentions the practice prevalent in the Orissa districts of administering opium pills to infants. Opium has long been popular with the Uriyas as a household remedy for certain diseases, and it is presumed that the use of the drug in these cases is purely medicinal.

A report in connection with the resolutions of the International Opium Commission at Shanghai was submitted to Government by the Board in February last. It has been directed by Government since the close of the year that, pending orders of the Supreme Government on the whole subject, action should be taken to restrict the hours of retail sale of opium, and that an enquiry should be made with a view to effecting a reduction in the existing number of retail opium shops.

The transmission of opium by post into, within, or out of Bengal, otherwise than on account of Government, has been prohibited by Government Notification No. 192 S. R. dated the 7th March 1911.

18. Cocaine, novocaine, etc.—It is to be regretted that, in spite of numerous prosecutions and the punishments inflicted, the illicit trade in cocaine is still on the increase; but it is extremely difficult to detect and suppress it. The Excise Commissioner raises the question whether, in the near future, it will not be necessary to undertake special legislation for its control. The Board recognizes the danger that the use of this pernicious intoxicant in private may spread; but before recourse can be had to special legislation, every possible endeavour must be made to enforce the stringent restrictions provided for in the existing law and rules. Importation of cocaine and of all drugs synthetic to it by means of the post has been prohibited, and only a few firms of repute are authorized to import them by other means. The drugs can be sold even for bonâ fide medicinal purposes only by a few approved chemists and druggists, who have received licenses for the purpose, and then only on the prescriptions of qualified medical practitioners. The punishment provided in the Excise Act, V of 1909, for unlawful import, export, transport, possession or sale of any of these drugs is imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000, or both. With energy and ability on the part of the Preventive staff, both Excise and Customs, breaches of these regulations ought to be detected. As observed in the Board's review of last year, the importance of this work should be brought home to these officers, and they should be reminded that liberal rewards will be given for such detection. But it is a matter of regret to the Board to find that Magistrates often fail to realize the absolute futility of inflicting lenient punishments on the offenders they convict. The Excise Commissioner mentions a case in which a Calcutta Magistrate imposed only a fine of Rs. 5 for illicit possession of 59 packets of cocaine. The profits made in this illicit trade are enormous; and the Board ventures to suggest to Government that this may be brought to the notice of all Magistrates. The Commissioner of Excise and Collectors should at the same time issue strict instructions to prosecuting officers to press for severe sentences in such cases on the ground of the difficulty of stopping illicit practices which yield huge profits.

Seven licenses for the sale of eucaine and one for the sale of beta eucaine were taken out for the first time during the year. All of them were taken in Calcutta.

19. Excise offences.—A very striking increase is to be observed in the number of convictions for illicit distillation, which rose during the year from 690 to 1,264. The chief general cause is probably the simplified procedure introduced by Act V of 1909 and the greater powers therein conferred on Excise officials. Convictions for this offence were most numerous in the Sonthal Parganas, Manbhum and Midnapore. Cheap mahua and the high price of liquor of the strength (50° U.P.) most popular among the Sonthals are assigned as the cause of the increase in the first-named district, while increase in preventive activity, due largely to judicious distribution of rewards, is said to have contributed to the results in Manbhum and Midnapore. As an experimental measure, the maximum retail price of 50° U.P. liquor in the Sonthal Parganas has been reduced from annas 8 to annas 6 per bottle with effect from the 1st August 1911.

The number of persons sentenced to imprisonment increased from 287 to 690, and the amount of fines imposed from Rs. 82,358 to Rs. 99,670. It appears that trying Magistrates have now begun to realize to some extent the importance of passing adequate sentences in Excise and Opium cases. But from the cases cited in the Excise Commissioner's report, in which obviously inadequate sentences were passed, it will be seen that there is still a great deal of room for improvement in this direction. * * *

The number of cases compounded during the year under section 65 of the new Excise Act, 1909, was 475. The provisions of this section have been overlooked in many districts. Collectors, Excise Deputy Collectors and Subdivisional Officers who are empowered to compound offences should be careful that only minor offences are so compounded.

Revenue under different heads.

9. There was an increase under every head except majum and cocaine. The largest increase of revenue (Rs. 4,26,372) occurred under the head country spirit. Ganja comes next with an increase of Rs. 3,07,129, followed by tari, pachwai and opium, which yielded increases of Rs. 1,71,978, Rs. 1,29,400 and Rs. 82,782, respectively. The fluctuations in the revenue from different excisable articles will be discussed in detail under the appropriate heads.

Demand, collection and balance.

10. Of the gross demand of Rs. 1,80,34,534, a sum of Rs. 1,79,76,523, or 99·68 per cent., was realized. Of the balance, the sum of Rs. 7,223 was remitted as irrecoverable; Rs. 5,981 have since been recovered; Rs. 8,610 are reported to be doubtful of recovery; Rs. 15,751 have been classed as irrecoverable; and the remainder (Rs. 20,446) is in course of realization. Taking the population of Bengal according to the recent census to be 53 millions, the incidence of the excise revenue is 5 annas and 5 pies per head, as compared with 15 annas and 4 pies in Bombay and 10 annas and 8 pies in Madras, taking, in respect of these two provinces, the preliminary figures of the current year's census as published in the Gazette of India of the 25th March last.

* * * * * *

SECTION II.—COUNTRY LIQUOR.

COUNTRY SPIRIT.

Systems.

12. The same three systems of manufacture and sale of country spirit were in force as in the previous year, viz., the contract supply, the central distillery and the outstill system. The central distillery system was confined to the Russa distillery, Calcutta; and, as explained in last year's report, it is very similar to the contract supply system.

Consumption of contract and distillery spirits.

13. The total consumption of contract and distillery spirits was 1,532,584 gallons L. P. as compared with 1,095,089 gallons L. P. in 1909-10, showing an increase of 437,495 gallons L. P. About 80 per cent. of this increase (viz., 349,604 gallons) is nominal, being due to the conversion of outstills into distillery shops in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions (except Champaran). Elsewhere the increase was most marked in Calcutta (30,889 gallons L.P.), Monghyr (23,879 gallons L.P.), Bhagalpur (14,676 gallons L.P.) and Purnea (14,055 gallons L.P.). In Calcutta cheap foreign liquor has hitherto competed with country spirit. The recent enhancement of duty on foreign spirit by Rs. 2—6 per gallon L. P., the prohibition of sale below certain fixed strengths and the restrictions placed on compounding and bottling of foreign liquor have checked considerably the consumption of such spirits; and the increase under country spirit represents, the Collector reports, to a large extent, displacement of cheap foreign spirits by country liquor. The statistics of imports corroborate this view. In 1909-10, when the contract supply system was first introduced into the districts of Monghyr, Bhagalpur and Purnea, the consumption of country spirit went down in a very marked manner, owing chiefly to the change of system and the prejudices of the people against the new liquor, and partly to the bad agricultural seasons and the consequent high prices of food-grains. Last year the people in these districts had become more accustomed to the new liquor and were getting over their prejudices: agricultural prospects, moreover, improved and prices were lower, the result being an increase in consumption as compared with the previous year. The figures merely show that conditions in these districts are reverting to the normal.

On the other hand, there was a considerable decrease again in the Manbhum district, which is reported to have been entirely due to the continued depression in the lac and coal trades. The Deputy Commissioner of this district is of opinion that the higher taxation of country spirit under the new system is acting as an incitement to illicit distillation and resort to other intoxicants. As a matter of fact, however, the increase in the prices of country spirit in this district as compared with the prices under the old outstill system, prior to the introduction of the contract system with effect from 1907-08, is not greater than in certain other parts of the province. In separate communications received during the year I find that the Deputy Commissioner ascribed the large increase in cases of illicit distillation to the cheapness of mahua (which acted as a temptation to distil), larger and more regular payments made to informers, the further powers given by the new Act, and the improved working generally of the Excise staff. He also expressed the view that there had been no great increase in illicit distillation, which had been common in the district ever since the new system was introduced, if not from before. It cannot, therefore, be said to have been satisfactorily proved yet that higher taxation has driven the people to illicit practices. However, the question of prices in this district will be carefully gone into during the current year, and a separate report submitted to the Board in the matter. From the Sonthal Parganas, also, a complaint has been raised by the local officers against the present price of liquor. While the consumption in this district in L. P. gallons has fallen from 84,860 in 1907-08 to 44,068 in 1910-11, the number of persons convicted of illicit distillation has risen from 203 in 1907-08 to 415 during the past year. The present Deputy Commissioner attributes the decline in consumption partly to (1) the cheapness of food-grains and the consequent smaller receipts on account of sale of grain, (2) the abolition of sale of liquor on credit, and largely to (3) the higher maximum retail price of liquor. The question of the price of liquor has been gone into on the spot, and my recommendations made in my letter No. 25E., dated the 11th of May last. The Board have since sanctioned, as a tentative measure for the remainder of the current year, a reduction in the maximum price of 50° U. P. liquor from annas 8 to annas 6 a bottle.

Total revenue from country spirit.

14. The total revenue from country spirit amounted to Rs. 90,71,981, as compared with Rs. 86,45,609 in 1909-10.

Revenue under contract supply and distillery systems.

15. The total revenue under the contract and distillery systems was Rs. 75,27,247, against Rs. 61,85,532 in 1909-10. The increase in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions is nominal, the outstill system having been in force in the previous year. In almost all the other districts which show any considerable rise, the increase in revenue follows a larger consumption which has already been explained above. In Calcutta, the 24-Parganas, Midnapore and Nadia, the increase was partly due also to the higher license-fees obtained at the last settlements as a result of greater competition among the local vendors. In Manbhum the heavy fall (Rs. 38,337) was chiefly due to the decrease in consumption referred to in paragraph 13 above. In Ranchi the decrease (Rs. 17,075) was caused by reduction of license-fees which had been rather high, and also, it is reported, to a tendency on the part of the aborigines to return to the use of home-brewed pachwai. The decrease in Khulna (Rs. 10,656) is attributed by the local officers to the distress caused by the cyclone in October 1909.

Outstill revenue.

16. The revenue from outstills fell from Rs. 24,60,077 to Rs. 15,44,734. Most of this decrease occurred in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions, where the old outstill system was superseded during the year by the contract supply system. There was a marked increase, however, in Hazaribagh (Rs. 79,580) and in Palamau (Rs. 65,254), which is ascribed to better agricultural conditions and larger advance collections on account of the current year's settlements, at which competition was unusually keen.

Country spirit licenses.

17. The number of licenses for the sale of country spirit (contract, distillery and outstill) was 2,944, against 2,942 in the previous year. Thirty-nine new shops were opened and 37 abolished, to meet local conditions and requirements, the net increase being two only.

Working of the contract distillery system in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions.

18. With effect from the 1st of April 1910 the contract distillery system was introduced for the first time into the districts of Patna, Gaya, Shahabad (except the Rohtas plateau and a small tract adjoining it), Saran, the Bettiah distillery area in Champaran, Muzaffarpur (except the Sitamarhi subdivision) and Darbhanga. The contracts for the supply of liquor were given to four Indian and two European distillers, and the wholesale price was fixed at annas 15 per gallon L. P., except in the portion of the Saran district supplied by the Cawnpore Sugar Works, Limited, where the wholesale price was fixed at annas 13—9. For the distribution of liquor, six warehouses were opened in Patna, six in Gaya, eight in Shahabad, seven in Saran, one in Champaran, seven in Muzaffarpur and eight in Darbhanga. The consumption of country spirit in these districts is compared in the table below with the estimated figures under the outstill system in 1909-10—

District.	Consumption in 1909-10.			Consumption of contract spirit in 1910-11.	Decrease.

Even accepting the figures of consumption under the outstill system in 1909-10 as correct, it will be seen that the introduction of the new system resulted in a total decrease in consumption in these seven districts of 423,013 L. P. gallons, or 45·1 per cent. But it is notorious that the figures of consumption under the outstill system were generally under-estimated; so the real decrease has probably been even larger. The decrease is chiefly due to the higher prices payable for the contract spirit and the circulation of various rumours in the several districts calculated to prejudice the people against it. One of the most widely diffused reports was that mercury had been mixed with the liquor. In one district a story was spread that sulphuric acid was employed. In many parts it was suspected, and not without reason, that these rumours were being seduloùsly encouraged by the old outstill-holders whose interests were largely affected by the introduction of the new system; but tales of such nature find ready credence among the superstitious and uneducated lower classes in Bihar. It was fully anticipated that considerable difficulties would arise in giving effect to a sudden change of this nature, especially among a highly credulous population, most of whom are still illiterate. The most serious danger was lest the people should have recourse to wholesale distillation or take to other intoxicants, such as ganja, bhang, cocaine, etc. The tact and watchfulness of the District Officers and their subordinates has, however, tided over a difficult period; and there is every reason to believe that the people are now fast losing their prejudices, and are realising the superior quality of the new liquor, and that a satisfactory start has been made towards the establishment of the system in these two divisions. As evidence of this may be quoted the following figures of consumption quarter by quarter during the past year, which show a progressive rise:—

	1st quarter.	2nd quarter.	3rd quarter.	4th quarter.
	L. P. Gals.	L. P. Gals.	L. P. Gals.	L. P. Gals.
Patna	20,814	30,161	36,484	42,678
Gaya ...	25,355	32,615	39,700	42,839
Shahabad	16,522	18,138	17,797	20,821
Saran	20,397	35,336	29,360	28,965
Champaran	1,425	2,033	1,527	1,432
Muzaffarpur	4,888	4,996	5,388	6,449
Darbhanga	6,832	5,991	7,130	7,880
Total ...	96,033	129,210	137,386	151,064

The total loss on account of the introduction of the new system in these seven districts has been Rs. 2,40,286. Considering the nature of the population to be dealt with, and having regard to the loss (Rs. 2,06,208) that occurred in the first year of the introduction of the system in the three districts of the Bhagalpur Division, viz., Monghyr, Bhagalpur and Purnea, the falling off cannot be said to be excessive. As the people settle down to the new conditions, consumption and revenue will gradually revert to the normal, and we may expect a considerable increase during the next year or two.

Local Excise Committees.

19. In accordance with the instructions contained in the Board's letter No. 6641B., dated the 29th November 1910, local committees were formed in the following towns, having a population of 20,000 or more, to consider and advise the Collector on the proposals regarding the licensing, number and situation of liquor shops (country spirit, imported spirit, pachwai and tari) for the year 1911-12:—

1. Burdwan.
2. Bankura.
3. Midnapore.
4. Hooghly.
5. Serampore.
6. Baranagar.
7. Bhatpara.
8. South Suburban Municipality.
9. Krishnagar.
10. Santipur.
11. Berhampore.
12. Patna City.
13. Bihar.
14. Dinapore.
15. Gaya.
16. Arrah.
17. Sasaram.
18. Chapra.
19. Bettiah.
20. Muzaffarpur.
21. Hajipur.
22. Darbhanga.
23. Monghyr.
24. Jamalpur.
25. Bhagalpur.
26. Darjeeling.
27. Cuttack.
28. Balasore.
29. Puri.
30. Ranchi.

These committees were composed of non-official as well as official members. Notices under section 31 of the Excise Act were published, and every opportunity was given to the public of expressing their opinion. In accordance with the recommendations of the committees, or in deference to local opinion, the following action was taken:—

Burdwan.—One tari shop in the heart of the town was abolished.

Bankura.—The exit from a liquor shop was changed.

Hooghly.—The sites of two liquor and one pachwai shop were changed.

24-Parganas.—Two tari shops were removed on local objection.

Berhampore.—One tari shop was abolished at the recommendation of the local committee.

Jessore.—The country spirit shop in the Jessore town was removed to a more suitable site in consultation with the Chairman of the Municipality.

Patna.—The entrance to a liquor shop was changed. Three tari shops were removed to unobjectionable sites.

Gaya.—One tari shop was shifted to an unobjectionable site.

Saran.—The entrances to one country spirit shop and one tari shop were changed.

Champaran.—Two tari shops were closed.

Muzaffarpur.—Eleven tari shops were abolished, and four others were moved to unobjectionable sites.

Darbhanga.—One tari shop was closed, and one moved to another locality.

Monghyr.—The sites of one tari shop and one country spirit shop were changed.

Bhagalpur.—The site of one country spirit shop was changed.

Sonthal Parganas.—Three tari shops were abolished, and the sites of three others changed.

Sambalpur.—The sites of two outstills, two tari and two distillery shops were changed.

Hazaribagh.—The sites of twenty-seven outstills and one contract liquor shop were changed.

Ranchi.—Sixteen outstills and one distillery liquor shop were removed from the vicinity of market places or other public places.

Manbhum.—The sites of three country spirit and two pachwai shops were changed.

In Calcutta no local committee was appointed, as the licenses for the sale of country spirit and for the retail 'on' and 'off' sale of foreign liquor had been settled for three years with effect from the 1st of April 1910, and the sites were considered by the committee which sat in 1909-10.

Convictions for drunkenness.

20. A statement is annexed showing the number of persons convicted of drunkenness, with the proportion per 10,000 of the population, for all the municipalities in the Province. Almost all the District officers in submitting the figures sound a note of warning, in which I fully agree, to the effect that the fluctuations in such statistics depend chiefly upon the methods and comparative energy of the local police. In my opinion it is not safe to draw any definite conclusions from figures of this nature. Only one case has been reported in which a liquor shop vendor was called upon to show cause for permitting a person to be drunk on the premises.

Abolition of country spirit shops in the Khondmals subdivision in the district of Angul.

21. After considerable correspondence with the local officers, the outstills in the Khondmals subdivision of Angul were closed with effect from the 1st of September 1910 in deference to the wishes of the Khonds, the headmen and the sardars promising to give whole-hearted assistance in the prevention of illicit distillation and to report all offences committed within their respective jurisdictions. The late Deputy Commissioner, Mr. McLeod Smith, was very sanguine as to the success of this measure, and believed that the Khonds were genuinely desirous of weaning themselves of the use of spirits. After seven months' experience of the result he wrote as follows:—

"The financial and social effects of the abolition on the people appear to have been so far good, though it is too early yet to make any definite pronouncement on the subject. We shall be in a position to gauge the real effects after the experiment has had a trial of at least one year. The money which the Khonds were spending before in buying liquor is now utilized in improving their lands and paying up their debts. Socially there has been an improvement too. Drunken brawls and drunkenness generally appear to have disappeared. The abolition of shops has not resulted in any real increase in the offences against the Excise laws. On the other hand, there has been a reduction in the number of cases of illicit distillation. Of the 19 cases under illicit distillation, 18 were against Khonds in which 32 Khonds were convicted. Three of these cases ended in acquittal. So there were 15 cases against Khonds. Four of those cases were reported by sardars and headmen. It may be noted that in most of these cases liquor was distilled for the performances of some ceremony and not for ordinary consumption. During the year under report 17 headmen were punished for failing to give information of cases in their respective jurisdiction."

The Divisional Commissioner, Mr. Levinge, in forwarding the District Excise Administration Report, writes that the latest reports "still indicate that the Khonds are observing their vow, that drunkenness among them has decreased, that the transfer of their lands to the Sundis has been stopped, and that they are gradually bettering themselves and freeing themselves from debt. Whether the improvement will be maintained is doubtful, and the situation requires to be closely watched. The local officers are alive to the necessity of vigilance."

The experiment is are of more than local interest; and the results will have to be carefully watched during the current year.

TARI.

Statistics.

25. While the total number of licenses issued for the sale of fermented and fresh tari decreased from 10,755 to 9,923, or by 832, the total receipts rose from Rs. 12,60,095 to Rs. 14,32,073, or by Rs. 1,71,978. These figures refer almost entirely to fermented tari. Licenses for the sale of fresh tari are comparatively few, aggregating only 174, with a revenue of Rs. 817, during the year, and are practically confined to the districts of the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions.

Fermented tari.

26. The number of licenses for fermented tari decreased from 10,586 to 9,749. As explained in last year's report, consistent measures have been taken to reduce the number of tari shops in the Bihar districts as suggested by the Indian Excise

Committee. The figures given below show to what extent this policy has been given effect to during the last five years:—

	Number of licenses in 1905-06.	Number of licenses in 1910-11.	Revenue in 1905-06.	Revenue in 1910-11.
			Rs.	Rs.
Patna	2,746	2,264	1,31,452	1,74,933
Gaya ..	2,370	1,284	1,36,966	1,90,253
Shahabad ...	671	395	27,676	62,720
Saran ...	1,116	735	64,000	1,01,795
Champaran	488	375	29,763	33,063
Muzaffarpur ...	1,813	1,128	1,19,949	1,50,024
Darbhanga ...	1,080	1,007	1,05,271	1,09,357
Monghyr ...	849	547	50,856	72,431
Bhagalpur ...	382	291	40,572	42,926
Total ...	11,515	8,026	7,06,505	9,37,502
	Decrease in licenses—		Increase in revenue—
			Rs.
	3,489		2,30,997

It will be seen that a large reduction has already been made, and with satisfactory results. Sufficient progress has not yet been made in the Patna and Darbhanga districts. Attempts have been made in a few districts to settle tari shops in groups with men of some capital, but without any real success, owing to opposition on the part of the local Pasis, who hold out stubbornly for the old system of small shops held by individual members of their community, and readily combine against any capitalist that takes up the business, as they strongly resent intrusion upon their hereditary occupation.

The total receipts from fermented tari rose from Rs. 12,56,721 to Rs. 14,28,806. The increase was most marked in the three Bihar Divisions and in Calcutta. The increase in Calcutta (Rs. 15,965) is ascribed by the Superintendent of Excise Revenue to a smaller number of surrenders of licenses, owing to the introduction of a system requiring the deposit of two months' fees in advance, and to the provisions of section 45 of the new Act, which hold the outgoing vendor responsible for any loss resulting from resettlement. The increases in Patna (Rs. 28,324), Gaya (Rs. 30,590), Shahabad (Rs. 14,025), Saran (Rs. 19,410), Muzaffarpur (Rs. 26,180) and Monghyr (Rs. 10,914) were due to various reasons, among which the following are the principal:—Greater competition among the tari vendors due to the reduction in the number of licenses; unpopularity of the new contract liquor on its first introduction; and more favourable agricultural conditions.

* * * * * *

PACHWAI.

Retail sale.

29. The total number of licenses issued for the retail sale of pachwai was 1,683, as compared with 1,655 in the previous year. In Bankura 15 new shops were opened in the old outstill tracts, where the aboriginal element predominates in the population, and where illicit manufacture has been very prevalent and difficult to detect. In the Midnapore district, similarly, 23 new shops were opened to meet existing demand. In Sambalpur 24 licenses were issued for the first time. In the Burdwan and Birbhum districts, where such shops are numerous, the number of licenses was slightly reduced, with the object of encouraging competition among the vendors.

The total revenue rose from Rs. 6,74,622 to Rs. 8,00,852. The increase was most marked in the Burdwan (Rs. 48,332) and Birbhum (Rs. 48,983) districts, and was due partly to the keener competition at the settlements, and partly to the fall in the price of rice, which is the only material used in the manufacture of pachwai in these districts.

Home-brewing.

30. The number of home-brewing licenses increased from 9,649 to 10,842, and the revenue under this head from Rs. 22,654 to Rs. 25,824. The increase in licenses occurred principally in the Nadia district. The Collector reports that in the previous year licenses were issued through the village headmen, the number of headmen being incorrectly taken as the number of licenses; while in the year under report each license granted was separately counted. The increase is, therefore, nominal.

In the Sambalpur district pachwai was taxed for the first time during the year, the privilege of free home-brewing being withdrawn. The measure raised strong opposition on the part of pachwai-drinking tribes in the vicinity of Sambalpur, who continued to manufacture, ignoring the orders. The local officers endeavoured to deal with this opposition by prosecuting the more well-to-do among the offenders; and considerable success has attended their action. The aborigines living in the interior are reported to be gradually learning to take out retail, home-brewing and special licenses for their festivals. The Excise staff, however, will have to be strengthened in this district if pachwai is to be effectually controlled. A good beginning has been made, and 784 home-brewing licenses were issued during the year.

* * * * * *

Free home-brewing.

32. During the year the Commissioner of the Bhagalpur Division submitted a proposal made by the Collector of Monghyr that the home-brewing of pachwai should be formally authorised in the case of the Sonthals residing in certain thanas in the south of the Monghyr district. It was reported that although the existing rules did not authorise this privilege, it had as a matter of fact always been allowed. The Lieutenant-Governor, however, decided that the conditions in the tracts in question were very similar to those in the Birbhum and Burdwan districts, where the privilege of free home-brewing was enjoyed by the Sonthals during the period of the Bandhana festival only; and His Honour directed that the same principle should be applied.

The question whether the Sonthals in the districts of the 24-Parganas, Nadia, Jessore and Khulna should continue to enjoy the privilege of home-brewing of pachwai under license at a small fixed fee, was also considered by Government during the year, and it was decided that this concession should be withdrawn with effect from the 1st of April of the current year. Free home-brewing has, however, been allowed to the Sonthals during the Bandhana festival, where the District Officers consider this necessary.

SECTION III.—FOREIGN LIQUOR.

Licenses and revenue.

33. The total number of licenses issued for the sale of foreign liquor was 744, against 592 in the previous year. The increase was chiefly due to the issue of 138 bar licenses for theatres and other places of amusement, of which 136 were issued in Calcutta. Such licenses, at a daily fee of Rs. 5, have been prescribed under the new Excise Act and rules, and are current only for the particular night on which the entertainment is held., Formerly licenses were not granted in these cases, but catering was allowed under special permission of the Board in each case. The total receipts from license-fees amounted to Rs. 3,14,431, against Rs 3,19,987 in 1909-10. The receipts from duty on Indian-made foreign liquor (country rum) were Rs. 1,90,566 against Rs. 1,45,988, the increase in this case being due principally to the enhancement of the rate of duty, and partly to larger consumption.

Imports.

34. The following figures show the imports during the last two years under the main heads:—

	Imported during 1909-10.	Imported during 1910-11.
	Liquid gals.	Liquid gals.
Ale, beer and porter	916,352	930,095
Cider and other fermented liquors ...	3,709	3,991
Spirits and liqueurs.	L. P. gals.	L. P. gals.
Brandy	55,218	69,376
Gin	10,210	16,932
Rum	5,576	2,708
Whisky	197,776	177,347
Other sorts of spirits	104,621	69,291
Spirits used in drugs and medicines	45,461	49,512
	Liquid gals.	Liquid gals
Liqueurs	5,760	6,478
Denatured spirits	207,720	178,611
Perfumed spirits	5,427	5,062
Wines	99,985	94,188

The imports of white and rectified spirits dropped from 64,000 gallons to 39,000 gallons; and the importation of Java arrack, of which 33,000 gallons were brought in last year, practically ceased, no doubt in consequence of the higher rates of duty in force The fixing of minimum strengths, and the restrictions placed on compounding, blending and bottling have evidently checked to a great extent the importation of plain and rectified spirits, from which most of the cheap foreign spirits used to be manufactured locally.

Statistics of consumption of imported liquor in Calcutta.

39. The question of obtaining more reliable figures of the consumption of foreign liquor in Calcutta than are available at present engaged careful attention during the year. Hitherto the foreign liquor vendors in Calcutta had not been compelled to keep accounts of sales, either wholesale or retail, in any particular form; and it was considered inadvisable to prescribe any special form of account that might involve additional labour and expense to the trade, where accurate accounts were already maintained by them, as suited to their own requirements. Foreign liquor vendors in Calcutta have, however, under the Board's orders, been directed to maintain their accounts of sales of foreign liquor in such a way that the total transactions in any particular licensed premises may be readily ascertainable.

LOCALLY MANUFACTURED BEER.

Number of breweries.

40. The three breweries referred to in last year's report, viz. at Gobra in Calcutta, and at Sonada and Kurseong in the Darjeeling district, continued to work.

Consumption and revenue.

41. The total quantity of beer issued from the three breweries was 88,635 gallons, against 107,122 gallons in the previous year. The quantity issued from the Victoria brewery in Darjeeling increased from 45,443 gallons to 48,319 gallons; while that from the Gobra brewery fell from 57,830 gallons to 36,834 gallons. The decrease in the latter case was due to the fact that the concern changed hands twice during the year. It is reported that under the new management the beer has improved in quality and is finding a better sale in the local market.

The increase in receipts from license-fees and duty from Rs. 13,920 to Rs. 17,206 is due to the enhancement of duty from 2 to 3 annas, with effect from the 25th February 1910.

* * * * * *

SECTION IV.—HEMP DRUGS.

GANJA.

Retail licenses.

46. The total number of licenses issued in the province for the retail sale of ganja was 2,067, against 2,051 in 1909-10. In 12 districts 23 new shops were opened to meet ascertained local demand, to check illicit practices, and, in the case of Sambalpur and Puri, to act as a safeguard against the smuggling of deshi ganja. On the other hand, in 4 districts 7 shops were abolished as being no longer required. The total sum realised on account of license fees rose from Rs. 12,83,314 to Rs. 13,79,836, or by Rs. 96,522.

Consumption and export of duty-paid ganja.

47. The figures below show the quantity of each kind of ganja issued and the duty realised during the last two years:—

Year.	Quantity issued on payment of duty.					Total duty levied.
	Rajshahi ganja.	Khandwa ganja.	Total.	Quantity consumed in the province.	Quantity exported beyond the province.
	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.	Mds.	Rs.
1909-10 ...	3,835	45	3,880	3,393	487	16,77,879
1910-11 ...	4,339	16	4,355	3,831	524	18,88,486

There was a net increase of 438 maunds in the quantity of ganja consumed within the province. The increase exceeded 20 maunds in the case of Purnea, Saran, the 24-Parganas, Darbhanga, Bhagalpur, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad, Champaran and Muzaffarpur. The reasons generally assigned by the district officers for the rise in consumption are (1) the cheapness of the drug consequent on the reduction in the wholesale price in Naogaon, (2) agricultural prosperity, and (3) expansion of trade and industries. The Collectors of Patna, Shahabad and Muzaffarpur districts attribute the increased consumption to some extent to prejudice against the new contract country spirit, which has induced some of the consumers to take to ganja as an alternative intoxicant. The Collectors of Gaya, Monghyr, Bhagalpur and Purnea, on the other hand, express a different view, holding that there is no reason to believe that distaste for the new liquor has driven the people to consume more ganja. It is a difficult matter to determine to what extent the dislike of the new liquor has influenced the consumption of ganja, or to apportion the increase to its various causes. It can only be said that the general causes which have combined in other parts of the province to bring about an increase in consumption of the drug have also operated in the districts of Patna, Shahabad and Muzaffarpur, and it is possible that prejudice against the quality of the new liquor has not had so much effect as has been supposed. At the same time, that this cause has operated to some extent, I think, there can be no room for doubt; and the higher prices which the consumers of country liquor in all the Bihar districts have now to pay, since the abolition of the outstill system, must have influenced their purchases. The figures of consumption will be carefully watched during the current year, when, it is hoped, the unfounded prejudices against the new spirit at least will die out. We see here one of the dangers of raising the prices, or curtailing the supply, of country liquor to which the people have become accustomed—the danger of driving them to the use of more harmful intoxicants.

The Collector of Saran reports that the rise in consumption in that district was due to the larger trade with Gorakhpur and Ballia in the United Provinces, where the retail limit was 5 tolas, as compared with 20 tolas in this province. The District Officer of Champaran also ascribes the increase in his district partly to consumption in the adjoining district of Gorakhpur. The Collector of Darbhanga writes that the increase in that district was partly due to the fact that consumers of the poorer classes were not able to pay the higher price charged for the new contract liquor, taking ganja instead, and partly to the spread of what is known as the kanthidhari movement. This is a movement of social origin, starting, so far as I have been able to gather, some years back in the Saran district. The members undertake to enforce certain rules of conduct—domestic and social—among which are the following—not to drink any spirituous or fermented liquor; not to eat fish or flesh; and to wear a kanthi, or necklace, in token of their vows. The movement exists in various forms, and not always under the same appellation, in most of the districts of North Bihar. The extension of the new contract supply system in this area, by raising at first prejudices against the new liquor, has given some additional impetus to these societies, though the movement cannot be said to have had any very marked influence as yet in decreasing the consumption of liquor.

With a view to check the smuggling of deshi ganja, steps were taken with the sanction of Government conveyed in their order No. 266 S.R., dated the 17th March 1910, for the supply of Rajshahi ganja exclusively in the district of Sambalpur at a duty of Rs. 7 per seer, with effect from the 1st April 1910. As there was still a stock of Khandwa ganja in the golas, issue of the Rajshahi drug was commenced later on in the year. The measure is reported to have worked satisfactorily.

* * * * * *

BHANG.

Collection and storage of bhang.

52. Though bhang grows wild in many parts of the province, it is only permitted to be collected for vend in three districts, viz., Monghyr, Bhagalpur and Purnea. The system under which a contract has been given for the collection and storage in these districts of an amount sufficient to cover the estimated consumption of the province was explained in last year's report. This system continued in force during the past year. One of the objects of the measure was to equalize as far as possible throughout the province the price payable for the drug by wholesale licensees, Rs. 3-8 per maund being fixed as the wholesale price chargeable by the contractor. From the reports received from many districts, however, it would appear that this object has not yet been attained, having regard to the divergent prices which are reported to have been paid by the retail vendors in the districts. There is no reason why the local rates should not be equalized to a greater extent, and in many cases thereby considerably reduced. The ultimate result should be to enable the duty on the drug to be increased. The District Officers have been addressed on the subject.

The total quantity of bhang collected was 1,951 maunds, as compared with 1,666 maunds in 1909-10. The drug was gathered under the supervision of Excise officers, and stored by the contractor at Monghyr, Bhagalpur and Purnea, and thence issued to wholesale dealers.

Licenses for retail sale and druggists' permits.

53. The number of licenses issued for retail sale was 533, against 508 in the previous year. The number of druggists' permits fell from 168 to 130, the decrease occurring in the districts of Jessore and Khulna, where an excessive number had previously been granted.

* * * * * *

CHARAS.

Licenses.

56. The number of licenses decreased from 51 to 50, owing to the abolition of a shop in the Monghyr district for which there was no demand.

Imports.

57. The total quantity of charas imported during the year was 37 maunds 12 seers, against 40 maunds 21 seers in the previous year. The drug was imported, as in previous years, direct from the Punjab into Calcutta, the 24-Parganas, Birbhum and Gaya.

* * * * * *

SECTION V.—OPIUM.

Licenses and permits.

61. The total number of licenses issued for the retail vend of opium was 1,381, against 1,358 in 1909-10. I have already suggested that the number of shops should be reduced; and the subject is now under consideration. The number of permits issued was 1,250, as compared with 1,226; while 15 licenses were granted for the sale of poppy-heads, as compared with 19 in the previous year.

License fees.

62. The revenue from license fees rose from Rs. 6,67,[illegible]0 to Rs. 7,24,371. The increase was largest in Calcutta (Rs. 20,700), where it was due to the keen competition among the vendors at the last settlements. Monghyr shows a decrease of Rs. 2,660. This is an opium cultivating district, and the decrease was deliberately effected with a view to enable the licit drug to be retailed at a reasonable price, and thus minimize the danger of illicit dealings in crude opium.

Consumption and duty.

63. The consumption within the province aggregated 2,167 maunds 37 seers, against 2,135 maunds 17 seers in the previous year. The increase was large in Monghyr (9 maunds 36 seers), which was probably a result of the reduction in fees referred to in the last paragraph. The largest decrease occurred in the Patna district (53 maunds 22 seers), where it was due to the restriction of issues to shops, adopted with a view to check suspected smuggling from this district to Calcutta and Burma. The receipts from duty rose from Rs. 19,03,851 to Rs. 19,29,422, and the total receipts from Rs. 25,71,011 to Rs. 26,53,793, or by Rs. 82,782, of which Rs. 57,211 were under license fees and Rs. 25,571 under duty.

The issues of opium to Foreign and Political States fell from 233 maunds 34 seers to 226 maunds 23 seers, the decrease being due to the smaller quantity taken by the French farmers in Chandernagore.

Madak and chandu.

64. The habit of opium smoking is prevalent in Calcutta, Balasore, Midnapore, Puri, Murshidabad, Sambalpur, the 24-Parganas and Burdwan. From Calcutta it is reported that the scarcity of opium and its high retail price resulting from the introduction of the restrictive system have led to the closing of some small "dens"; otherwise the habit is as rife as before, and will continue to be so till the saloons are forbidden by law. In the Midnapore district the habit is common in thanas Keshiari, Dantun and Narayangarh. The Collector remarks that the present law does not check it. In Sambalpur opium smoking is chiefly confined to up-country Muhammadan settlers. In the jangal tracts in the western part of the district the habit is believed to be an antidote to the fever prevalent in the locality, and it is practised to some extent in consequence.

Morphia.

65. The use of morphia as an intoxicant has been reported as existing to a limited extent in the districts of Hooghly, the 24-Parganas, Calcutta, Nadia and Jessore and in the towns of Rajmehal, Sahebganj and Deoghur in the Sonthal Parganas; but there is no reason to suspect any appreciable increase in the use of this drug. With effect from the 1st of June of the current year, all preparations of opium have been placed under the same restrictions, in respect of import, as cocaine. These orders must have an important effect in checking consumption. Information was received during the year of the import of certain quantities of morphine by means of the French mail bag into Chandernagore, evidently with the object of smuggling it into British territory. At present there are no restrictions on the importation of morphine into French territory. As a result of a conference by the Commissioner of the Burdwan Division and myself with the Administrator of Chandernagore, Government has recommended that similar action be taken in respect of morphine and other alkaloids of opium as in the case of cocaine.

Preparation of opium pills.

66. The District Officer of Sambalpur reports that the practice of administering opium pills to infants under three years of age is prevalent among all classes of the people, both high and low. It has been ascertained that a similar custom exists in the Balasore district among all classes, while in the Puri district it is practically confined to the Khurdah subdivision. The Collector of Cuttack writes that when any child of the lower classes appears to be sickly from its birth, the drug is administered with the mother's milk, but there is no general practice of giving pills among all classes.

Smuggling and preventive measures.

67. The measures referred to last year's report, adopted to check the smuggling of duty-paid opium into Burma, have met with a large degree of success. The introduction of the restrictive system of issues has cut off the free supply from the Calcutta shops as well as from shops in the adjoining districts of the 24-Parganas, Howrah and Hooghly, the vendors being no longer able to meet the extra demand. The smugglers, therefore, have now to depend largely upon uncertain supplies from up-country, and their operations are more troublesome and expensive, while the opportunities for detection have been correspondingly increased. Upwards of twelve and a half maunds of opium were confiscated during the year, against four and a half maunds in 1909-10. Of this quantity more than 11 maunds were seized in Calcutta. In the cases detected by Excise and Police officers the accused were generally up-country smugglers, while the offenders arrested by Customs officers were mostly Muhammadan lascars of out-going vessels bound for Burma. In Gaya several residents of Dacca and Chittagong were caught purchasing opium for illicit trade, and putting up in the house of a local smuggler.

* * * * * *

SECTION VI.—COCAINE, NOVOCAINE, ETC.

Licenses.

69. The total number of licenses issued for the sale of cocaine was 280, against 271 in the previous year.

Prosecutions.

70. The number of persons convicted of illicit sale and possession of cocaine was 353 (viz., 270 in Calcutta, 24 in Hooghly, 22 in the 24-Parganas, 15 in Bhagalpur, 9 in Monghyr, 5 in Patna, 4 in Purnea, 2 in the Sonthal Parganas and one in each of the districts of Burdwan and Gaya), against 296 in the previous year. In Calcutta no less than 349 ounces of cocaine were seized. Two important seizures were effected by Customs officers. In one case, in which the quantity seized was 149 ounces, the drug was imported by sea by some Chinamen hidden in their personal luggage, and was seized when being surreptitiously transferred from the ship's hold to a country boat. In the second case, 114 ounces were seized when being transhipped to a steamer bound for Chittagong.

Fifty-two ounces of cocaine were confiscated in the Burdwan, Hooghly, 24-Parganas, Patna, Gaya, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Purnea, Sonthal Parganas and Manbhum districts.

It is satisfactory to note a marked improvement in sentences awarded by Magistrates. In the present state of the law it is only by really deterrent sentences that we can hope to deal with this illicit trade. The use of this insidious drug as an intoxicant does not, however, show any tendency to decline, in spite of the numerous prosecutions and the punishments inflicted. On the contrary, there is grave reason for fearing that the evil is more prevalent than ever and is on the increase. The demand for the drug is so strong that the profits of the trade are enormous, and, as a result, we find that even heavy fines are readily paid. This illicit trade is one that demands the utmost vigilance of the Excise officers: and it seems to me a question whether in the near future special legislation will not be required.

* * * * * *

SECTION VII.—OFFENCES AGAINST THE EXCISE AND OPIUM LAWS.

Arrests and convictions.

74. The total number of persons arrested rose from 4,200 in 1909-10 to 4,578 during the year under report. The increase was largest in the Midnapore (254), Sonthal Parganas (222) and Manbhum (151) districts, where it was due to the larger number of illicit distillation cases detected, and in Gaya (63) where the introduction of the Contract distillery system gave rise to more cases of illicit distillation and smuggling of outstill liquor from adjoining districts. The number of persons arrested by Excise officers rose from 3,092 to 3,216, and of persons arrested by other officers from 1,108 to 1,362. Convictions were obtained in 93 per cent. of the cases prosecuted by Excise officers, and in 86 per cent. of those prosecuted by others. The Excise staff were most successful in Midnapore, Manbhum, the Sonthal Parganas, Bankura, Gaya and Singhbum. In Calcutta several important cases of opium and cocaine smuggling were detected by Police and Customs officers; and good work is said to have been done by the Police in Gaya, Saran, Cuttack, Hazaribagh and Singhbhum. In the 24-Parganas the officers of the Salt Department rendered valuable assistance in the detection of excise offences.

Classification of offences.

75. Convictions for illicit distillation were most numerous in the Sonthal Parganas (445), Manbhum (248) and Midnapore (229). * * *

SECTION VII.—GENERAL ADMINISTRATION.

Block Patrol System.

87. The Block patrol system was introduced into the districts of the Patna, Tirhut and Bhagalpur Divisions in the course of the year. The districts were parcelled out into convenient circles and each circle was placed in charge of a Sub-Inspector. Each circle was sub-divided into a certain number of blocks, and each block was further divided into sub-blocks for purposes of patrol. It is too early yet to pronounce definitely upon the success or failure of the system, but enough experience has been gained to show that full effect cannot be given to it with the present executive staff; and several District Officers have questioned its suitability for Excise purposes. In many parts of the Province, for instance in those portions of the Bihar districts which lie to the north of the Ganges, where large tracts are under water during the rainy season and communications are interrupted, such patrol is not practicable except during the dry months. Again, while continuous patrolling enables the Sub-Inspectors to acquire more intimate acquaintance with the conditions of all parts of their circles, it necessarily prevents them from paying so much attention to other sides of their work. Gaya is the only district in which the new system of patrol is reported to have resulted in the detection of several important cases of illicit distillation and smuggling of outstill liquor into the contract area. The Collector of Monghyr thinks the system can hardly lead to any good result unless a strong supervising agency is provided. He reports that not a single case was sent up as a result of patrol. The Collector of Purnea actually ascribes the decrease in detection during the year to the introduction of these patrols, on the ground that offenders take advantage of the absence of the executive officers on patrol duty in distant parts of their circles. I think it will be best to reserve judgment until the system has had at least a clear full year's fair trial in each district.

PART IA.

The following order, issued by the Government of India, in the Foreign Department, is republished for general information and guidance.

C. J. STEVENSON-MOORE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

Simla, the 6th October 1911.

No. 1884G.—The following communication addressed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the Most Hon'ble the Marquis of Crewe, K.G., His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, is published for general information and guidance:—

His Majesty being fully determined to observe the duties of neutrality during the existing state of war between Turkey and Italy and being moreover resolved to prevent, as far as possible, the use of His Majesty's harbours, ports and coasts and the waters within His Majesty's territorial jurisdiction in aid of the warlike purposes of either belligerent, has commanded me to communicate to you, for your guidance, the following rules which are to be treated and enforced as His Majesty's orders and directions:—

RULE I.—During the continuance of the present state of war, all ships of war of either belligerent are prohibited from making use of any port or roadstead in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies, or Foreign Possessions, or Dependencies, or of any waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown as a station or place of resort for any warlike purpose or for the purpose of obtaining any facilities for warlike equipment. And no ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted to leave any such port, roadstead, or waters from which any vessel of the other belligerent, whether the same shall be a ship of war or a merchant ship, shall have previously departed until after the expiration of at least twenty-four hours from the departure of such last mentioned vessel beyond the territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty.

RULE II.—If there is now in any such port, roadstead, or waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown any ship of war of either belligerent, such ship of war shall leave such port, roadstead or waters within such time, not less than twenty-four hours, as shall be reasonable, having regard to all circumstances and the conditions of such ship as to repairs, provisions, or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew. And, if after the date hereof any ship of war of either belligerent shall enter any such port, roadstead, or waters subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown, such ship shall depart and put to sea within twenty-four hours after her entrance into any such port, roadstead, or waters, except in case of stress of weather, or of her requiring provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew, or repairs, in either of which cases the authorities of the port or of the nearest port, as the case may be, shall require her to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of such period of twenty-four hours without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what may be necessary for her immediate use, and no such vessel which may have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair, shall continue in any such port, roadstead, or waters for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs shall have been completed, provided nevertheless that in all cases in which there shall be any vessels, whether ships of war or merchant ships, of both the said belligerent parties in the same port, roadstead, or waters within the territorial jusrisdiction of His Majesty, there shall be an interval of not less than twenty-four hours between the departure therefrom of any such vessel, whether a ship of war or merchantman of the one belligerent, and the subsequent departure therefrom of any ship of war of the other belligerent, and the time hereby limited for the departure of such ships of war respectively shall always in case of necessity be extended so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but no further or otherwise.

RULE III.—No ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted while in any port, roadstead, or waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty to take in any supplies except provisions and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew, and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country or to some nearer-named neutral destination, and no coal shall be again supplied to any such ship of war in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty without special permission until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

RULE IV.—Armed ships of either billigerent are interdicted from carrying prizes made by them into the ports, harbours, roadsteads, or waters of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, or any of His Majesty's Colonies or Possessions abroad.

The Governor or other chief authority of each of His Majesty's Territories or Possessions beyond the seas shall forthwith notify and publish the above rules.

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the orders and directions of His Majesty the King-Emperor of India as contained in the above communication are to be obeyed by all persons within the limits of His Majesty's Territories and Possessions in India.

No. 1883-G.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 17 of the Indian Arms Act, 1878 (XI of 1878), the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the following amendments be made to Schedule VI of the Indian Arms Rules, 1909:

For the existing clause 12 the following shall be substituted:

(12) (a) The Secretary to the Government of Bombay in the Political Department, and (b) The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal.	Any place within the political jurisdiction of His Britannic Majesty's Consul-General and Agent of the Government of India in Khorasan or of His Britannic Majesty's Consul for Seistan and Kain.

No. 1884-G.—The following communication addressed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the Most Hon'ble the Marquis of Crewe, K.G., His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, is published for general information and guidance:

"His Majesty being fully determined to observe the duties of neutrality during the existing state of war between Turkey and Italy, and being, moreover, resolved to prevent, as far as possible, the use of His Majesty's harbours, ports, and coasts and the waters within His Majesty's territorial jurisdiction in aid of the warlike purposes of either belligerent, has commanded me to communicate to you, for your guidance, the following rules which are to be treated and enforced as His Majesty's orders and directions:

"Rule I.—During the continuance of the present state of war, all ships of war of either belligerent are prohibited from making use of any port or roadstead in the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, or in any of His Majesty's Colonies or Foreign possessions or dependencies or of any waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown as a station or place of resort for any warlike purpose or for the purpose of obtaining any facilities for warlike equipment. And no ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted to leave any such port, roadstead, or waters from which any vessel of the other belligerent (whether the same shall be a ship of war or a merchant ship) shall have previously departed until after the expiration of at least twenty-four hours from the departure of such last mentioned vessel beyond the territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty.

"Rule II.—If there is now in any such port, roadstead, or waters, subject to territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown, any ship of war of either belligerent, such ship of war shall leave such port, roadstead, or waters within such time, not less than twenty-four hours, as shall be reasonable, having regard to all circumstances and the conditions of such ship as to repairs, provisions, or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew. And, if after the date hereof any ship of war of either belligerent shall enter any such port, roadstead, or waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of the British Crown, such ship shall depart and put to sea within twenty-four hours after her entrance into any such port, roadstead, or waters, except in case of stress of weather, or of her requiring provisions or things necessary for the subsistence of her crew, or repairs, in either of which cases the authorities of the port or of the nearest port (as the case may be) shall require her to put to sea as soon as possible after the expiration of such period of twenty-four hours without permitting her to take in supplies beyond what may be necessary for her immediate use, and no such vessel, which may have been allowed to remain within British waters for the purpose of repair, shall continue in any such port, roadstead, or waters for a longer period than twenty-four hours after her necessary repairs shall have been completed. Provided, nevertheless, that, in all cases in which there shall be any vessels (whether ships of war or merchant ships) of both the said belligerent parties in the same port, roadstead, or waters within the territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty, there shall be an interval of not less than twenty-four hours between the departure therefrom of any such vessel (whether a ship of war or merchantman) of the one belligerent and the subsequent departure therefrom of any ship of war of the other belligerent. And the time hereby limited for the departure of such ships of war respectively shall always in case of necessity be extended so far as may be requisite for giving effect to this proviso, but no further or otherwise.

"Rule III.—No ship of war of either belligerent shall hereafter be permitted, while in any port, roadstead, or waters, subject to territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty, to take in any supplies except provisions and such other things as may be requisite for the subsistence of her crew and except so much coal only as may be sufficient to carry such vessel to the nearest port of her own country or to some nearer named neutral destination; and no coal shall be again supplied to any such ship of war in the same or any other port, roadstead, or waters, subject to the territorial jurisdiction of His Majesty, without special permission until after the expiration of three months from the time when such coal may have been last supplied to her within British waters as aforesaid.

"Rule IV.—Armed ships of either belligerent are interdicted from carrying prizes made by them into the ports, harbours, roadsteads, or waters of the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, or any of His Majesty's Colonies or possessions abroad. The Governor or other chief authority of each of His Majesty's territories or possessions beyond the seas shall forthwith notify and publish the above rules."

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the Orders and Directions of His Majesty the King, Emperor of India, as contained in the above communication are to be obeyed by all persons within the limits of His Majesty's territories and possessions in India.

Enactment proposed to be repealed.	How dealt with in Bill.	Remarks.
	I.— The Lunacy Supreme Courts Act, 1858 (XXXIV of 1858).
Preamble and section 1	Reproduced in clauses 34 and 35.	Of the Chartered High Courts, the High Courts of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, which have succeeded to the jurisdiction of the Courts mentioned in the preamble and referred to in section 1 of the Act, alone possess general original jurisdiction in lunacy. The jurisdiction of the Allahabad High Court in lunacy matters is derived under clause 12 of its Charter and it has been held not to extend to persons who are not European British subjects: Jaundha Kver v. Court of Wards, I. L. R. 4 All 159; this jurisdiction need not be dealt with in this Bill.
Section 2 ...	Reproduced in clause 36...	.....
" 3 ...	" " " 37...	The first and third paragraphs of section 3 are omitted. The provisions requiring the inquires to be ordinarily held before the full Court and entitling the lunatic to demand such an inquiry seem to be obsolete. Section 13 of the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, and the Charters of the respective High Courts contain provisions for the disposal of all matters by Judges sitting singly or in benches.

" 5 ...	" " " 38 (2)	.....

" 7 ...	Omitted	Unnecessary, in view of the omission of any special provision regarding the disposal of cases by a single Judge. Under its Charter every Judge of a High Court has all the powers of the Court.
" 8 ...	Reproduced in clause 40...	The Bill makes no distinction between inquisition by the Court and by a Judge thereof: the word "mode" is therefore substituted for "modes."
" 9 ...	" " " 41	The portions of the section relating to "the Judge" are omitted for the same reason.
" 10 ...	" " " 42 ...	The provision in the section regarding cases tried by a single Judge is omitted for the same reason. The last clause of the section is omitted as superfluous.
" 11 ...	cf. clause 45 ...	The wording of the clause follows that of the first part of section 109 of the English Lunacy Act, 1890.
" 12 ...	cf. " 43 ...	The reference in the section to the "report of the Judge" is omitted, and for the reference to inquisitions taken upon the oath of a jury a reference to the findings mentioned in the section is substituted; the rest of the section is slightly amplified to bring out the intention.

Statement showing alterations proposed to be made by Bill in the existing law.

Clause of Bill.	Existing law.	Remarks.
Clause 1 ...	...	Short title and extent.
2 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 17 ...	The provisions of Act 36, 1858, are reproduced in Part II and Chapters VI and VII of the Bill; no saving seems to be required in respect of the provisions contained in Chapters VI and VII.
Clause 3 (1) ...	...	See Act 36, 1858, section 1.
„ „ (2) ...	...	See Act 36, 1858, sections 7, 8, clause 4.
„ „ (3) ...	Act 35, 1858, section 23...
„ „ (4) ...	...
„ „ (5) ...	Act 36, 1858, section 18 ...
„ „ (6) to (11) ...	...
„ 4 ...	Act 36, 1858, sections 7, 8.	This clause is adapted from section 4 (1) of the English Lunacy Act, 1890.
„ 5 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 8, clause 3.	The Bill proposes to abolish the special provision for Presidency-towns contained in Act 36, 1858, section 7, under which a lunatic in a Presidency-town not so found may be received and detained in a lunatic asylum on an order by a private person accompanied with the requisite medical certificates. Outside Presidency-towns no person who is not a criminal lunatic or a wandering or dangerous lunatic or a lunatic not under proper care and control, can under the existing law be received into a lunatic asylum until he has been found by the District Court on inquisition to be a lunatic. Clause 5 of the Bill provides a uniform procedure for the reception and detention in a lunatic asylum under a reception order made by a Magistrate applicable to the case of any person, not being a criminal lunatic or a lunatic so found, whether within or outside a Presidency-town. Sub-clauses (2) and (3) are new; the former is adapted from section 7 (4) of the English Act.
Clauses 6 to 10 ...	...	These provisions are new and are adapted from sections 6, 7 of the English Act.
Clause 11 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 7, 2nd paragraph.	This clause applies both within and outside Presidency-towns; the person in charge of the asylum is substituted for the visitors or manager of the asylum.
„ 12 ...	Act 11, 1877, section 3 ...	No change.
„ 13 (1) ...	Act 36, 1858, section 4, 1st paragraph.	Ditto.
„ 13 (2) ...	Act 36, 1858, section 5, last paragraph.	Ditto.
„ 14 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 4 ...	The Bill proposes to abolish the distinction between asylums at the Presidency and other asylums. In the first proviso to the clause in the Bill provision is made for the taking of a bond instead of a mere undertaking; this is probably not a material alteration in the law.

Statement showing alterations proposed to be made by Bill in the existing law—contd.

Clause of Bill.	Existing law.	Remarks.
Clause 15 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 5 ...	No material change.
„ 16 ...	„ „ „ 6-A.	Period of detention under each order subsequent to the first is proposed to be limited to ten days, and the aggregate period extended to thirty days.
„ 17 ...	„ „ „ 6 ...	The town of Rangoon is proposed to be included.
Clauses 18 to 20 ...	.....	These clauses are new; they are adapted from sections 28 to 30 of the English Lunacy Act.
Clause 21 ...	.....	This clause is new and is adapted from section 35(1) and 37(2) of the English Lunacy Act.
„ 22 ...	.....	The clause is new but it merely states the existing law.
„ 23 (a) ...	„ „ „ 7 ...	For an order by any private person the Bill proposes to substitute in all cases an order by the Committee or Master.
„ 23 (b) ...	„ „ „ 8, clause 2.	The section of the Act provides for the reception of all lunatics outside Presidency-towns, whether so found or not, and requires in every case an order of the District Judge for such reception; the Bill proposes that outside Presidency-towns a lunatic so found for whom a guardian has been appointed may be received into an asylum on an order to that effect by such guardian accompanied by a certified copy of the order of the Judge that the lunatic is a fit and proper person to be detained in an asylum. For the reception of lunatics not so found provision is made in clauses 5 to 10.
„ 24 ...	„ „ „ 8, clause 4.	The provisions of the Act are extended to the reception of lunatics so found by a High Court. The order for costs is only to be made after the lunatic has been admitted into an asylum. The person in charge of the asylum is substituted for the visitors or manager. The provision for the recovery of costs ordered to be paid is made somewhat more definite.
„ 25 ...	„ „ „ 12	No material change.
„ 26 ...	„ „ „ 2, 2nd para.	No material change.
„ 27 ...	„ „ „ 3 ...	No change.
„ 28 (1) ...	Act 5, 1898, section 472	"Magistrate or Court" substituted for Local Government.
„ 28 (2) ...	„ „ „ 471 (4).	.....
„ 29 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 9 ...	No material change. It is expressly provided in the Bill that on the order being made the person detained should be discharged.
„ 30 (1) ...	.....	This sub-clause is new and is adapted from section 72 of the English Lunacy Act.
„ 30 (2), (3) ...	Act 11, 1877, section 3 (2nd para.), section 7.	No material change.

Statement showing alterations proposed to be made by Bill in the existing law—contd.

Clause of Bill.	Existing law.	Remarks.
Clause 31 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 10	The Bill proposes to provide for the taking of a bond instead of an undertaking; this probably makes no material change in the law.
" 32 (1) ...	" " " 17-C	No material change.
" 32 (2) ...	Act 5, 1898, section 471 (3)	Amended so as to authorise the removal of a person from any place where he may be confined, whether the place where he was originally confined or any other place (in the same or any other province) to which he may have been subsequently removed. See Home Department Proceedings, (Medical) January, 1903, Nos. 46 and 47.
" 33 ...	Act 36, 1858, section 13	No material change; "person in charge" substituted fo "manager."
" 34 ...	.....	This clause is new but it represents the existing law. Act 34 of 1858 applies only to these three High Courts. The jurisdiction in lunacy of the Allahabad High Court is derived from clause 12 of its Charter; it does not extend to natives of India and may be left out of the Bill. See Jaundha v. Court of Wards, I. L. R. 4 All. 159.
" 35 ...	Act 34, 1858, section 1 ..	.....
" 36 ...	" " " 2	.....
" 37 ...	" " " 3 ...	The first and third paragraphs of the section are omitted; the provisions contained in those paragraphs requiring the inquiry to be ordinarily held by the Court itself (as distinguished from a Judge thereof) and entitling a lunatic to demand an inquiry by the full Court are probably obsolete. Section 13 of the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, and the Charters of the respective High Courts contain ample provision for the disposal of all matters by the Judges either sitting singly or in benches or in chambers. In this view section 7 of Act 34, 1858, is superfluous and is omitted. Under its Charter every Judge of a High Court has all the powers of the Court.
" 38 (1) ...	" " " 4 ...	No material change; mention of the twenty miles limit is omitted.
" 38 (2) ...	" " " 5 ...	.....
" 39 ...	" " " 6 ...	.....
" 40 ...	" " " 8 ...	.....
" 41 ...	" " " 9 ...	Reference to report of the Judge is omitted in view of the omission of provision relating to exercise of jurisdiction by a single Judge.
" 42 ...	" " " 10 ...	The provision relating to cases tried by a single Judge is omitted. The last clause of the section is omitted as superfluous.
" 43 ...	" " " 12 ...	Reference to report of the Judge is omitted.

Clauses 95 to 98 ...	.....	These clauses are new. Clause 95 provides for the enforcement of bonds: clause 96 provides for the payment of pensions, etc., to lunatic Government servants and follows section 335 of the English Lunacy Act; clause 97 relates to the use of forms contained in Schedule I; and clause 98 protects persons acting in good faith in the execution or intended execution of the provisions of the Bill.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE bulk of the law relating to the custody of lunatics and the management of their estates in India is at present contained in the following Acts:—

(1) The Lunacy (Supreme Courts) Act, 1858 (Act XXXIV of 1858).

(2) The Lunacy (District Courts) Act, 1858 (Act XXXV of 1858).

(3) The Indian Lunatic Asylums Act, 1858 (Act XXXVI of 1858).

(4) The Military Lunatics Act, 1877 (Act XI of 1877).

(5) The Indian Lunatic Asylums (Amendment) Act, 1886 (Act XVIII of 1886).

(6) The Indian Lunatic Asylums (Amendment) Act, 1889 (Act XX of 1889).

(7) Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

(8) Section 30 of the Prisoners Act, 1900.

The first three of these Acts are based in great measure on the English Lunacy Regulation Act, 1853 (16 & 17 Vict., c. 70), and the English Lunatics Act, 1853 (16 & 17 Vict., c. 96). These English Acts after frequent amendment are now replaced by the Lunacy Act, 1890 (53 Vict., c. 5), as amended by the Lunacy Act, 1891 (54 & 55 Vict., c. 65). It is in the opinion of the Government of India desirable that the law relating to the custody of lunatics in India should be amended and assimilated with the modern English law on the subject, and the present Bill has been prepared to effect this purpose. Opportunity has also been taken to rearrange and consolidate as far as possible the whole law relating to lunatics.

3. The provisions of section 30 of the Prisoners Act, 1900, and much of Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, cannot be conveniently inserted in any general Lunacy Act, and they have therefore been left untouched. Sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 471 and the whole of section 472 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, which merely regulate the places in which criminal lunatics may be confined and prescribe the manner in which such lunatics are to be visited, have, however, been incorporated in the present Bill.

4. All changes of any importance made by the Bill are specified in the Notes on Clauses annexed, and the tables attached to the Bill show in detail the amendments proposed to be made in the law and the manner in which each section of the Acts now in force has been dealt with. The main features of the Bill are noted below.

5. Chapter II deals with the confinement of lunatics in asylums on reception orders and covers much the same ground as the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1858. In so far as such reception orders can be made otherwise than on petition, the law is left practically unchanged.

6. Sections 4 to 11 and 18 to 20 however make a considerable change in the law. At present the confinement of lunatics in asylums on the application of relatives and friends can be effected as follows:—

(a) In Presidency-towns, by an order under section 7 of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1858, (1) after the person whom it is desired to confine has been found to be a lunatic by inquisition, or (2) accompanied by the medical certificates specified therein; an order under section 7 of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1858, can only be made for the confinement of a lunatic in an asylum in a Presidency-town and

(b) outside the Presidency-towns, only by an order of the Civil Court.

7. Under the present Bill the procedure prescribed by section 7 of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1858, has been changed, and where application is made for the confinement of a lunatic (not being a lunatic so found on inquisition) in an asylum the application must be made by petition to a Magistrate and a reception order can only be made by him. The distinction between asylums in Presidency-towns and asylums outside such areas has given rise to administrative difficulties and inconveniences and serves no useful purpose. It has therefore been discarded.

8. It will be observed that under the Bill reception orders on petition can only be made in Presidency-towns, and in this particular the provisions of Act XXXVI of 1858 have been followed. Local Governments can, however, apply the provisions of the law regarding such reception orders to areas outside the Presidency-towns.

9. The procedure prescribed for the issue of reception orders is based on the English Lunacy Act, 1890. The manner in which medical certificates are to be given and the method of examination are carefully prescribed in the Act, and every care has been taken to prevent the improper confinement of any person in an asylum on a false allegation of lunacy.

10. Chapter IV is a reproduction with slight verbal changes of the present Lunacy (Supreme Courts) Act, 1858.. It is probable that substantial amendments bringing the law and procedure more into accordance with the modern English law may be desirable, but the Government of India do not think it expedient at present to make any change in this part of the Bill until the High Courts concerned have been consulted.

11. Chapter V deals with lunacy proceedings in District Courts and embodies with slight changes the existing law as contained in Act XXXV of 1858. It may possibly be desirable at a later stage to assimilate as far as possible the procedure in the District Courts to that which may be finally adopted for the High Courts Doubts have been expressed whether that Act empowers a District Court to issue orders for the detention of a lunatic in an asylum (see In re Joga Kuar, I. L. R. 30 Cal 973) This question has now been set at rest by the provisions of clause 70 (1) which is taken from the English Lunacy Act, 1890.

12. Chapter IX is new but contains little that is not sufficiently explained in the Notes on Clauses. Special attention may, however, be drawn to clause 94 which penalises the detention of lunatics in asylums in contravention of the Act and also the detention for payment of lunatics or alleged lunatics in unlicensed institutions. This clause is based on section 315 of the English Act. This clause does not prohibit the detention of lunatics by their relatives or in their own houses. The Government of India are, however, of opinion that in the public interest it is desirable that complete control should be exercised over all private institutions where lunatics are confined for payment.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 1.—The Lunacy Acts at present in force do not extend to the whole of British India, but it is expedient that there should be the same law on this subject throughout the whole of British India, and this present clause has been drafted to effect this purpose.

Clause 3.—The definitions are new, except the definition of the word "lunatic", which is taken from section 18 of Act XXXVI of 1858.

Attention is drawn to the distinction between "a medical officer" and "a medical practitioner." This distinction is of importance in proceedings for the issue of reception orders. Under section 7 of Act XXXVI of 1858, two medical certificates are necessary and one of which has to be granted by a Presidency Surgeon or a Surgeon in the employment of Government.

Clauses 4 and 5 (1) are based on section 4 of the Lunacy Act, 1890. The last sentence of section 4 (1) of the English Act has been omitted as unnecessary.

Clause 6 is taken from section 5 of the Lunacy Act, 1890. It may be noted that any application for an inquisition under Act XXXV of 1858 must at present be verified (see Bussrutali Chowdhry v. Eshan Chander Roy, V Weekly Reporter, Misc., page 54).

Clauses 7, 8, 9 and 10 are taken from section 6 and section 7 (1) of the English Lunacy Act, 1890. The provisions of section 6 (5) of that Act have been omitted as unnecessary.

Clause 11 is taken from section 7 of Act XXXVI of 1858. Under the existing law, when a lunatic is received into an asylum in a Presidency-town and he has relatives who are bound to support him, the officer in charge of the asylum may refuse to receive the lunatic unless the relatives enter into an agreement to pay for the cost of his maintenance A similar provision has been inserted in the present Bill in the case of lunatics for whose detention in any asylum a reception order is made under clauses 7 and 10.

Clauses 18 to 20 are new and of importance. They are taken from the Lunacy Act, 1890, and contain very necessary directions as to the manner in which and the persons by whom medical certificates are to be furnished.

Clauses 21 and 22 are new. The former is taken from the Lunacy Act of 1890. The intention is to protect persons in charge of asylums who detain lunatics under proper authority.

Clause 23 is based on section 8 of Act XXXVI of 1858. Sub-clause (b) (ii) of this clause, however, authorises a District Court to make an order for the admission of a lunatic into an asylum without any application by a relative if such a course appears to be necessary.

Clause 24.—By the proviso the Court is authorised to abstain from making any order a to the payment of the cost of maintenance if at any time subsequent to the order of detention it is found that the lunatic and those bound to support him have no means to pay for his maintenance.

Clause 29.—The only change made in the existing law by this clause is the proviso that visitors to an asylum should not make an order for the discharge of criminal or military lunatics.

Clause 30 (1) authorises the discharge of any harmless lunatic confined on a reception order made on petition at the written request of the original petitioner. It is taken from section 72 of the Lunacy Act, 1890.

Clause 33 is taken from section 13 of Act XXXVI of 1858 but the wording has been altered to make it clear that a police-officer, though he may himself arrest an escaped lunatic, cannot authorise such arrest by any other person.

Clause 44 is new and is taken from the Lunacy Act, 1890, section 108 (2). It is clear from Act XXXVI of 1858 that the intention of the legislature was to give authority to Courts to make orders for the custody of lunatics so found on inquisition, and this power is now specifically given by this clause. At the same time, when it is unnecessary to make any order for such custody, the Courts are empowered, as in England, to abstain from making any such order Similar powers are given to District Courts under clause 70 of the Bill.

Clauses 65 to 84 reproduce the existing law as contained in the Lunacy District Courts Act with the following changes ;—

Clause 70 already referred to specifically authorises District Courts to make orders for the custody of lunatics. Their powers in this respect have been doubted.

Clause 71.—Under the existing law a District Court must appoint a guardian of the person of a lunatic if it appoints a manager of his property. Such an appointment is not necessary if a lunatic is harmless and possibly in some cases if he is confined in an asylum. The clause as now framed authorises a District Court to abstain from making any such order if it is not necessary.

Clauses 77 to 79.—In these clauses, as in clauses 42 and 50 and elsewhere, the words "person related by blood or marriage" have been substituted for the word "relative", as in many instances it is desirable that authority should be given to a person not related to the lunatic by blood to take action under the law.

Clause 82.—In this clause and clause 62 and elsewhere the words "such members of his family as are dependent on him for their maintenance" have been substituted for the word "family" in view of the decision of the Calcutta High Court in the case of Chandrabati v. Mauji Lal, I.L.R. 23 Cal. 512.

Clause 95 provides a procedure for the realization of any sum due under bonds executed under the provisions of the Act.

Clause 96 reproduces section 335 of the English Lunatic Act, 1890. Its object is to provide an inexpensive procedure for the payment of pensions, etc., to Government officers who have become insane.

Clause 99 provides for the case of lunatics detained under proper authority prior to this Bill becoming law. The first sub-clause is based on section 336 of the English Lunacy Act of 1890.

"or

(e) any wrong payment or delay in payment of a money order beyond the limits of British India by an officer of any post office, not being one established by the Governor General in Council."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Experience has shown that the existing Post Office Act, which was enacted in 1898, fails in certain respects to give adequate powers to the postal authorities to deal with articles posted in contravention of the Act. The present Bill is designed to give such further powers as are required, and at the same time to remove certain obscurities and to remedy such minor defects as have been found to exist. An explanation of the several amendments which it is proposed to make is given in the subjoined Notes on Clauses.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 2.—There are certain isolated localities where the cost of carrying the parcel traffic very considerably exceeds the receipts from such traffic. The object of the amendment is to enable the Post Office to increase rates on parcels in such particular localities, where it is found that the maximum rates allowed under the existing Act are unremunerative. The English Post Office Act fixes no maximum rates for the parcel post. It is considered that the object in view can most simply be attained by erasing the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 7. A corollary to this is the erasure of sub-section (2) of section 7 and of the First Schedule.

Clause 3.—It is considered advisable to provide for the issue of rules to prohibit the transmission by post of circulars relating to lotteries, and to prohibit or restrict the transmission by post of coin, bullion or any other articles of a specified description. At present there is no prohibition of the transmission of circulars relating to lotteries, although the publication of such circulars is an offence under section 294-A of the Indian Penal Code. The transmission of gold coin or bullion is limited by executive orders, but it is desired to provide expressly for the issue of rules to cover such cases. These objects will be attained by the addition of the new sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) to sub-section (2) of section 21 of the existing Act.

The addition of sub-clause (f) has been made in order to make it possible to provide by rule for the imposition of a fee for an enquiry regarding the disposal of a postal article of any class. It has been found that a great deal of labour and trouble is caused to post offices and audit offices by the investigation of complaints relating to unregistered value-payable articles, a large majority of which ultimately prove to be groundless. In the British Post Office an enquiry fee of 2*d.* is charged for each enquiry into the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered article, on the condition that the fee will be refunded if it is found that the Post Office has been in fault. It is considered advisable to adopt a similar procedure in India with regard to value-payable articles, but the amendment has been so worded as to enable the principle of an enquiry fee to be extended, if necessary, to postal articles of any class.

Clause 4.—The amendment of section 23 (2) so as to allow the opening of any newspaper, book, pattern or sample packet suspected to have been sent in contravention of section 20 (a) of the Act is necessary to render the prohibitions laid down under section 20 effective. The necessity for this amendment arose from the powerlessness of the Post Office to stop the circulation of an extremely indecent pamphlet recently published, inasmuch as the Act does not allow the postal authorities to open any article suspected to have been sent in contravention of section 20. In the United Kingdom the Post Office has the power to open any postal article to ascertain whether it contains indecent matter, but it is considered that in India the opening of newspapers and book, pattern or sample packets only should be permitted for this purpose. Letters and parcels will not be affected.

The provisions of section 23 (3) (b) of the existing Act are not satisfactory. Under them the Post Master General is constituted the authority which shall decide whether an article is or is not indecent or obscene, or whether words written thereon are or are not seditious. It is considered advisable to relieve the postal authorities of this responsibility, and to substitute a provision enabling the Governor General in Council to make rules for the treatment of articles which are considered by the postal authorities to have been sent in contravention of section 20.

Clause 5.—The absence of any definition of "contraband goods" in the existing Act has been repeatedly felt, and it is proposed to substitute a defining phrase, making it clear that the provisions of section 24 are applicable to goods of which the import or transmission by post has been prohibited under the Excise, Opium or other laws.

Clause 6.—This clause makes an addition to section 25 of the Act to make it clear that the power to search conferred by that section includes the power to open or unfasten any newspaper or any book, pattern or sample packet in course of transmission by post suspected to contain goods of any specified description, with respect to which a notification has been published under section 19 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878. The present law leaves it doubtful whether the power to search includes the power to open, although it has indeed been held to include the power to open any postal article. It is desirable to make the law definite on this point, and at the same time to limit the power to open specifically to newspapers, book, pattern or sample packets. The power will not extend to letters and parcels, although the postal authorities will have power to hand over unopened to the Customs authorities postal articles which they are not permitted to open, but which they have good reason to believe to contain prohibited goods. A further defect in the existing law is that it empowers the postal authorities to deliver to such officer as the Governor General in Council may appoint only the goods found and not the postal articles containing the goods.

Clause 7.—This clause amends the last words of section 26 (l) by providing that the order for the disposal of intercepted articles should be passed by the authority sanctioning their interception. At present while a Local Government or an officer specially authorised in this behalf by the Governor General in Council can order the interception of a postal article, the directions as to its disposal have to be issued by the Governor General in Council. This procedure is cumbrous and unnecessary, and it is considered that the Local Government or the officer empowered to intercept postal articles should be authorised to dispose of them.

Clause 8.—As the law stands, it is illegal to withhold from the sender of a value-payable article payment of the money received from the addressee, even if the article may have obviously been sent to defraud the addressee. It is necessary that there should be some provision enabling the Post Office to withhold payment in such cases, and the object of the amendments introduced by clause 9 is to enable the Governor General in Council to make rules authorising a Post Master General—

(1) to withhold the payment to the sender of a value-payable article of the money received from the addressee, if the latter complains, immediately on receipt, that the article was sent fraudulently, and if there are good grounds for believing such complaint to be justified, and

(2) to order the return of the value-payable article to the sender and the refund to the addressee of the money received from him, if the Post Master General is fully satisfied, after enquiry has been made, that the article was fraudulently sent.

Clause 9.—The object of this clause is to exempt the Secretary of State from liability in cases of wrong payment, or delay in payment, beyond the limits of British India of a money order issued by the Post Office of India. The necessity for the amendment has been established by a recent judgment against the Secretary of State in a case where it was admitted that payment had been made to the wrong person through no fault of the Indian Post Office but owing to a want of care and caution on the part of a foreign Post Office.

APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO ADVISE ON THE SELECTION OF DRAWING BOOKS FOR USE IN SCHOOLS AND ON OTHER MATTERS TOUCHING ON ART.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EDUCATION.

Dated Calcutta, the 7th October 1911.

RESOLUTION—No. 3892.

READ—

Letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, No. 14968, dated the 5th September 1911.

IT has been brought to the notice of Government that it is not practicable to provide, in the constitution of the existing Text-Book Committees, for the appointment of members having special knowledge in matters of Art. At the same time as Drawing is included in the curriculum of the standards prescribed for primary, secondary and other schools, it is desirable that there should exist a Committee competent to advise the Education Department not merely on the selection of Drawing books for use in schools, but also on other matters touching on Art. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council is therefore pleased to approve of the formation of a Committee consisting of the members named in the margin as an experimental measure for a period of three years. The primary function of the Committee will be to advise the Director of Public Instruction with regard to the selection of Drawing books for use in schools, but the Director of Public Instruction will be at liberty to consult the Committee with regard to other matters touching on Art in which the Department may be concerned. PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP OF BENGAL, 1911.

(On an average of the five years ending 1909-10 the area under indigo in the territory to which this forecast relates represents about 37·9 per cent. of the total area under indigo in British India.)

Explanatory.—With the exception of a few acres in Nadia, indigo is cultivated only in Bihar districts, chiefly in North Bihar and Purnea.

Character of the season.—Sowings began at the normal time, and in the early part of the season until June last weather conditions were generally favourable. The defective rainfall in July and excessive rain in August considerably affected the outturn from second cuttings in the important districts of North Bihar. Injury by insects was caused in Champaran and Muzaffarpur.

Area sown.—The area sown this year is estimated at 108,700 acres against 117,000 acres, the revised figures for last year.

Outturn.—In the important districts the percentage outturn of the crop has been reported as follows:—

	Per cent.
Champaran	85
Muzaffarpur	96
Darbhanga	75
Purnea	67
Saran	92
Monghyr	62

The outturn of the crop in North Bihar and Monghyr works out to 85 per cent., and in other minor districts in Bihar and Bengal to 72 per cent. The estimate for the whole Province is 84 per cent. of a normal crop. According to the District Officers' estimate the total yield of the crop for the Province as a whole works out to 24,315 factory maunds.

According to the estimate of Messrs. Moran and Company the outturn of the indigo crop this year is likely to amount to 24,000 factory maunds.

FIRST FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1911.

(On an average of five years ending 1909-10, the area under winter rice in the territory to which the forecast relates represents about 26·5 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—The rainfall in April and May, though defective, was sufficient for the preparation of seed-beds and for ploughing. The monsoon arrived a few days before the normal date, but the advance was of a temporary nature. In June the rainfall was slightly defective in Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, 24-Parganas, Khulna and Saran, but it was above the average in the rest of the province. The rainfall in July was insufficient in many districts, and transplantation was delayed in consequence. In the early part of August there was good and sufficient rain in many districts, and satisfactory progress was made in the work of transplantation. The rainfall, however, was insufficient in the districts of Hooghly, Howrah, Cuttack and Balasore. In Cuttack and Balasore there were good showers in the beginning of September, and prospects improved considerably in these districts. The rainfall in September has been generally favourable in most of the remaining districts for the growth of the crop.

Area sown.—The total area sown with winter rice this year is estimated at 19,176,800 acres against 20,917,400 acres of last year. The normal area under the crop is returned as 19,932,100 acres. The decrease in the area sown this year is due to want of sufficient rain during the season for transplantation.

Outturn.—From the summary of the district returns appended to this report, it will be seen that seven districts report more than a normal crop, viz., Bhagalpur (118 per cent.), Muzaffarpur (117 per cent.), Darbhanga and Sambalpur (112 per cent. each), Champaran (104 per cent.), Saran (102 per cent.), and the Sonthal Parganas (101 per cent.). Twelve districts report crops between 90 and 100 per cent., four districts between 80 and 89 per cent. and six districts between 70 and 79 per cent. In the remaining four districts the outturn of the crop is reported as follows:—Howrah (55 per cent.), Hooghly and Singhbhum (50 per cent. each), and Balasore (39 per cent.) According to the district officers' estimate the provincial outturn works out to 91 per cent. of the normal.

A break in the rains during June and July caused anxiety, but it ended in time to allow of transplantation. The condition of the crop is fair. The sowings were late as there was no seasonable rainfall at first. The transplantation was also delayed on account of the absence of early rainfall. The crop is expected to be early normal. The decrease in the area sown is due to the absence of rainfall at the time of scattering seeds and consequent shortage of seedlings for transplantation.

Excessive rain at the sowing time interfered with more extensive cultivation, and a month's drought following on it made the situation worse. SECOND REPORT ON THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, OCTOBER 1911.

[On an average of the five years ending 1909-10 the area under the cotton crop in the territory to which this forecast relates represents about 0·3 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.]

Explanatory.—This report deals with the progress of sowings and with the condition of the standing crop since the publication of the first report in August last.

Character of the season.—The early crop is most important in Ranchi, where it covers about half the total area under the crop in the province. The less important districts are the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Manbhum and Singhbhum. The weather conditions have been generally favourable in these districts. The late crop is chiefly cultivated in North Bihar, Cuttack and Singhbhum. Fair progress has been made in sowings of the late crop. In Bankura, Cuttack and Balasore sowings have not commenced as yet. The condition of the standing crop is reported to be favourable. In parts of Saran and Darbhanga, however, the crop was damaged to some extent owing to heavy rain.

Area sown.—The area sown with early cotton is reported to be 60,037 acres against 34,614 acres of last year. The large difference is due to the revision of figures in Ranchi in the light of the recent survey figures. Up to date, 27,907 acres have been sown with the late cotton crop. Last year's area under the crop was 33,388 acres.

W. B. HEYCOCK,

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Not available	15th June	The condition of early crop is not good owing to the weather and rainfall being somewhat unfavourable at the sowing time. NOTICE.

CLAUSES 37 and 38 of the bye-laws under section 559 (34) of the Calcutta Municipal Act regulating the use of Municipal slaughter-houses, which were sanctioned by the Local Government in 1903 and are at present in force read as follows:—

Existing clause 37.—All animals brought to a slaughter-house and which are not intended for immediate slaughter shall be kept in pens attached to the slaughter-house until such time as they are required and permitted to be slaughtered, but no animal shall be so kept for more than 48 hours or such shorter period as may be necessary, subject to the provisions of bye-law No. 11 for the purpose of preparing such cattle by fasting or otherwise for the process of slaughtering.

Existing clause 38.—The owner of an animal kept in any pen for any purpose shall bear all charges for its keep, and he shall be allowed to feed it and to employ his own servants, if necessary, for that purpose, and shall obey all orders and directions given by the Superintendent.

The General Committee propose to amend these two clauses to read as follows:—

Proposed clause 37.—All animals brought to a slaughter-house which are not intended for immediate slaughtering shall be kept in special pens attached to the slaughter-house until such time as they are required and permitted to be slaughtered.

Proposed clause 38.—If the owner does not water and feed the animal the Superintendent shall do so and shall realise a charge of four annas per day per head before he permits the animal to be slaughtered. If after ten days the owner does not claim the animal it shall be sold by the Superintendent in order to defray expenses, and if there be any balance after defraying expenses, it shall be paid to the party entitled to claim it.

Notice of the proposed amendments is given in accordance with the provisions of section 565 of the Calcutta Municipal Act. This is in supersession of the notice dated the 27th April 1911 already published giving intimation of the proposed amendment of clause 38.

Objections if any, to the amendments now proposed will be received up to Thursday, the 30th November 1911, after which date the General Committee will proceed further with the draft.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE LAND REVENUE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LOWER PROVINCES FOR THE YEAR 1910-11.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

Darjeeling, the 20th October 1911.

RESOLUTION—No. 1886T.—R.

READ—

The report of the Board of Revenue on the Land Revenue Administration of the Lower Provinces for the year 1910-11.

The Land Revenue Department of the Board was administered by the Hon'ble Mr. F. A. Slacke, C.S.I., from the 1st April to the 19th November 1910, from which date there has been only one Member. The Hon'ble Mr. W. C. Macpherson, C.S.I., who had till then held charge of the Miscellaneous Revenue Department, including the Land Acquisition and Partition Branches, administered both Departments of the Board up to the 20th March 1911, when he went on leave and was succeeded by the Hon'ble Mr. R. T. Greer, C.S.I., who held charge up to the end of the year under review.

2. Demand, Collection, Balances, and Remissions.—The current demand of the year was Rs. 2,90,03,517, or Rs. 69,166 in excess of that of the previous year. The percentage of total collections on the total demand amounted to 97·31, a figure in excess of those recorded during the three preceding years. The percentages of total collections on current demands and of current collections on current demands, amounting respectively to ·99·95 and 97·96, fell short, however, of the previous year's figures, 101·18 and 98·22).

3. Road and Public Works Cesses.—The current cess demand shows an increase of over Rs. 1,86,000, due chiefly to valuations and re-valuations and to the assessment of mines and forests; the increase was most marked in the Bhagalpur, Sonthal Parganas and Manbhum districts. The percentage of total collections on the current demand is also satisfactory, being 101·8 as against 99·4 and 98·9 recorded during the two previous years; the good harvests of the year and the consequent ease with which payments were generally made, account for the increase. The only districts in which the collections were considerably below the standard of 100 per cent are Palamau, Ranchi and the Sonthal Parganas. The causes for this call for no comment. The chief features of the administration of the Cess Act during the year were (a) the introduction in Hazaribagh district of the new procedure laid down in Chapter II A of that Act, whereby revaluation is carried on in combination with settlement operations, and (b) the completion of important revaluations in North Monghyr and South Bhagalpur.

4. Money orders.—As compared with the previous year there was an increase of over Rs. 30,000 in the value of land revenue and cesses remitted by means of money orders during the year under review. This improvement is to some extent due to the attempts made by the Postmaster-General, Bengal, in consultation with the Board of Revenue, to popularize the system by removing as far as possible the chief impediments that retard its expansion. It is hoped that, as its advantages become more widely known, the timidity of the public and their aversion to entrust the payments to postal agency will gradually disappear. There was an increase in the number and value of rent money orders during the year under review, with an accompanying increase in the number of money-orders refused.

5. Coercive measures.—The revenue sale law was administered with the usual leniency and moderation. The number of certificates issued on account of all demands, inclusive of cess, shows a slight decrease from 135,315 to 134,839; the decrease is especially noticeable in connection with the realization of arrears of rent due from Khas Mahal and Ward's Estate tenants, and of demands under section 7(1) of the Public Demands Recovery Act, 1895, other than those specifically mentioned in Appendix IX to the Report. The number of cases disposed of amounted to 135,928 or 79·3 per cent of the total number for disposal, as compared with 138,742 or 79·2 per cent disposed of during the preceding year.

6. Condition of the raiyats in Government estates and expenditure on improvement and education.—As the year under review was one of great agricultural prosperity throughout the Province, the condition of the raiyats in the Government estates was, on the whole, most satisfactory, even after allowance is made for the loss of life caused by plague in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut Divisions. The total expenditure on miscellaneous and sanitary improvements rose from Rs. 1,15,456 to Rs. 1,67,871. There was a slight increase in expenditure on education, but that on roads and communications declined from Rs. 1,72,459 to Rs. 1,34,931. As noted in last year's Resolution, the existing system for the allotment of funds for improvements to Government estates has been found to be defective in many respects; the question of the adoption of a new system in its place has not yet, however, been finally settled. A revised scheme, based on a classification of estates according to the nature of the improvements to be carried out, was circulated during the year to all district officers, whose opinions are now under the consideration of the Board of Revenue.

7. Advances.—As the year under review was characterised by unusual agricultural prosperity throughout the Province, the expenditure on loans under the Land Improvement and the Agriculturists' Loans Act was very low and amounted to Rs. 89,831 and Rs. 3,18,760, respectively, which are the lowest figures on record since the year 1903-04. Of the total advances of Rs. 4,67,920 and Rs. 29,60,633 made under the two Acts which were recoverable during the year, Rs. 3,60,214 and Rs. 20,03,965, or approximately three-fourths and two-thirds, respectively, of the amounts due, were actually realized. So far as loans under the Agriculturists' Loans Act are concerned, the collections are neither satisfactory as compared with those made during the past year, nor consistent with the general prosperity of the agricultural population. It is satisfactory to observe, however, that the loan transactions of this year resulted in a net profit of Rs. 75,033, against a net loss of Rs. 26,325 during the previous year.

8. Drainage and Irrigation.—As in previous years, the most extensive drainage and irrigation operations were conducted in the Presidency Division. Fair progress was made with the Magrahat Drainage Scheme, and it is satisfactory to note that some of the areas covered by the scheme which were previously water-logged have already begun to yield magnificent crops. Extensive projects have also been formulated for the Nadia and Jessore districts.

9. Partitions.—There was a slight decrease in the number of partition cases instituted during the year, while the number of disposals remained almost the same as in the preceding year. Only 946 cases were pending at the close of the year, as compared with 991 and 1,024 pending at the close of the two preceding years. It is proposed to amend the Bengal Estates Partition Act, 1897, with a view to simplify the existing procedure which is both dilatory and expensive. The Bill to amend the Act has been introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council, but its further progress has been arrested by the necessity of revising some of its provisions; the opinions of the local officers are being collected on the revised procedure which it is intended to introduce.

10. Land Registration.—Mutations have been systematically reported, and the registers have been kept up to date. The number of applications for registration on all accounts was greater during the year under review than during the previous year, and fewer applications were pending at the close of the year.

11. Sunderbans.—On the abandonment of the raiyatwari system of settlement of waste lands in the Sunderbans, and on reversion to the old system of granting leases to capitalists, subject to certain safeguards, a set of revised rules for the grant of such leases was drawn up during the year under review and discussed at a Conference composed of the Commissioner of the Presidency Division and certain leading grantees of waste land in the Sunderbans. Their criticisms on the rules and forms of leases are now under the consideration of the Board of Revenue. The Fraserganj Government Estate in the 24-Parganas Sunderbans, with an area of 9,440 acres, was settled during the year with Maharaja Manindra Chandra Nandi of Cossimbazar for a period of 40 years, with effect from the 1st December 1910. The present rent is Rs. 2,500, which will eventually rise to Rs. 30,340 per annum.

12. Working of the Tenancy Act.—The Bengal Tenancy Act continued to work satisfactorily. The withholding of rent receipts and the levy of abwabs and other illegal exactions have by no means ceased, but it is satisfactory to observe that the extension of settlement operations and the gradual spread of education are having a salutary effect in encouraging the tenants to learn their rights and to resist illegal demands The Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, which is as yet imperfectly understood by the aborigines of the Division, and is therefore being cautiously administered, has on the whole yielded excellent results.

13. Weather, crops, prices of food, wages, material condition of the people, etc.— The rainfall recorded during 1910-11 was slightly below normal in the Presidency and Chota Nagpur Divisions, but exceeded the normal in the remaining divisions of the province. The harvests were excellent, while, as a consequence of the general increased demand for labour resulting from increased industrial activity throughout the province, wages remained at their former high level. No permanent emigration or immigration was reported during the year, but the usual temporary movements of labour occurred during the harvesting seasons. At the same time, the succession of good crops has caused a general fall in the prices of the staple food crops, while the development of industrial enterprise and competition have lowered the prices of manufactured articles of common use. It can be stated with certainty that the general condition of the agricultural population has reached a comparatively high degree of prosperity.

14. The Lieutenant-Governor in Council thanks the Board for their administration of the Land Revenue Department. The names of officers mentioned as deserving of special commendation have been noted and will be recorded by the Appointment Department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council,

J. G. CUMMING,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

PRELIMINARY FORECAST OF THE LATE VARIETY OF THE SESAMUM (TIL) CROP OF BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1911.

(On an average of the five years ending 1909-10 the area under til in the territory to which this forecast relates represents about 4·8 per cent of the total area under this crop in British India.)

Explanatory.—This forecast deals with the preliminary estimates of the area and outturn of the late variety of the crop.

Character of the season.—The late variety of til or sesamum is cultivated chiefly in Sambalpur, where it covers more than one-third of the total area under the crop in the Province. The season has been favourable and the outturn of the crop is reported to be above the normal in this district. It is also important in Chota Nagpur and in Midnapore, Champaran, Bhagalpur, Sonthal Parganas and Angul. The weather conditions have generally been favourable, and the present condition of the crop is reported to be fair to good in most districts. There has been some damage caused by excessive rain in Muzaffarpur, the Sonthal Parganas and Angul Sowings began at the normal time. They are reported to be still going on in Burdwan, 24-Parganas, Nadia, Champaran, the Sonthal Parganas, Angul, Sambalpur and Palamau.

Area sown.—The total area sown up to date is 184,300 acres. Last year's area under the crop was 200,800 acres. The normal area is reported at 249,400 acres.

According to the estimates of the District Officers the outturn of the crop for the whole Province works out to 103 per cent.

Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORTS ON INLAND EMIGRATION FOR THE YEAR ENDING THE 30TH JUNE 1911.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EMIGRATION.

Darjeeling, the 23rd October 1911.

RESOLUTION—No. 2233T.—G.

READ—

The reports on Inland Emigration under the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901 (VI of 1901), for the year ending the 30th June 1911, submitted by the Superintendents of Emigration, Calcutta, the Sonthal Parganas, Hazaribagh, Ranchi, Palamau, Manbhum, Singhbhum and Sambalpur.

Read also—

The remarks of the Commissioners of the Bhagalpur, Orissa and Chota Nagpur Divisions on the reports submitted by the Superintendents of Emigration in their respective Divisions.

IN the resolution recorded on last year's reports, it was stated that the ultimate abolition of recruitment by contractors was an ideal to be kept in view but to be attained gradually. In pursuance of this principle, the districts of Howrah and Sambalpur were closed to recruitment by contractors with effect from the 1st August 1910; and in view of the irregularities which are reported to be of frequent occurrence at the chief recruiting centres, Government has at present under consideration proposals for further reducing the area still open to recruitment under Chapter III of Act VI of 1901. One of the chief reasons for the prevalence of abuses at Asansol was the large number of contractors located at that centre and the consequent growth of excessive competition which led to the encouragement of illegal operations. Orders have therefore been issued by Government to the effect that Superintendents of Emigration are at liberty to refuse to issue further licenses in areas in which more than a reasonable number of contractors are found to be working.

2. The number of emigrants of all classes recruited in Bengal, Madras, the Central Provinces, the United Provinces and adjoining Native States, who embarked at Goalundo during the year, was 37,675, as compared with 33,744 in the preceding year Of this number 7,226 were recruited by licensed contractors and 26,727 by garden sardars of all classes as against 7,021 and 25,447, respectively, in the year 1909-10. The number of emigrants from Native States rose from 1,276 in 1909-10 to 3,722 in 1910-11. Attention was drawn in last year's resolution to the increase which had occurred in the recruitment of Free or Non-Act labourers during 1909-10, as compared with the figures recorded for 1908-09; this year's increase is also worthy of comment and is engaging the special attention of Government in view of the fact that it has taken place in defiance of the prohibitions and restrictions which the Chiefs are known to place upon emigration from their States.

3. Six thousand four hundred and forty emigrants were registered in Bengal under Chapter III, and 2,045 under Chapter IV, as against 5,943 and 2,141 in the preceding year. Of the former class of emigrants, 911 (as against 1,039 in the previous year) were forwarded without being placed on contract and of the latter class 793 (as against 813 in the year 1909-10). Fifty-seven emigrants, as against 94 in the previous year, were recruited by garden sardars holding special permits under section 90, while 11,798 unindentured emigrants were engaged by garden sardars working under the control of appproved Associations as against 11,925 in the year 1909-10. There was a falling off in emigration from the districts of Hazaribagh, Palamau and the Sonthal Parganas, due to better crops and a consequent increase in the local demand for labour. In the districts of Ranchi, Manbhum, Singhbhum and Sambalpur, on the other hand, more emigrants were recruited during the year under review than in the previous year, chiefly owing to the fact that a larger number of sardars was sent down from the labour districts There was some increase in the number of emigrants recruited under Chapter III of the Act in the districts of Midnapore, Bankura, Cuttack and the 24-Parganas, but a decrease in the districts of Ranchi, Manbhum, Burdwan, Birbhum and Balasore.

4. The number of licensed contractors, sub-contractors and recruiters working during the year were 24, 4 and 277, respectively, as against 27, 4 and 2[illegible]6 in the previous year. The licenses of 10 contractors and 79 recruiters were cancelled during the year for irregularities and misconduct. The total number of garden sardars employed in this province was 9,646 as against 8,507 in the year 1908-09. Of these 1,344 worked under Chapter IV of the Act and 60 held special permits under section 90, while the remaining 8,242 worked under the control of approved Associations. As in the previous year the work of the local agents of these Associations is reported to have been generally satisfactory. In all 38 local agents' licenses were issued during the year, of which four licenses were subsequently cancelled.

5. The number of criminal cases in connection with recruitment fell from 99 in the previous year to 95 in the year under review, and the number of persons convicted was 64 as against 73 in the year 1909-10.

6. The depôts, places of accommodation and rest-houses for emigrants were regularly inspected and maintained in good sanitary condition. No outbreaks of epidemic disease have been reported.

7. There was an improvement in the receipts and a falling off in the charges in connection with the transport of labour to Assam, the figures being Rs. 11,625 and Rs. 20,294, respectively, as against Rs. 10,870 and Rs. 20,860 in the year 1909-10. The increase in the receipts was due chiefly to the fact that a larger number of emigrants was registered under the Act during the year under report than during the preceding year.

8. The thanks of the Lieutenant Governor in Council are due to Dr. C. Banks, to the local officers and to Dr. W. C. Hossack (who acted as Superintendent of Emigration from the 30th March 1911) for their valuable services in the administration of the law.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council,

J. G. CUMMING,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

MONTHLY WEATHER AND CROP REPORT OF BENGAL FOR SEPTEMBER 1911.

I. Character of the season.—During the month under review the rainfall was general over the Province. The fall was above the normal in Chota Nagpur and Bihar (except Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur and Darjeeling) and in Sambalpur, Burdwan, Birbhum, Bankura, Nadia and Murshidabad. It was below the average in the rest of the Province. The excess was well marked in Murshidabad, Patna, Shahabad, Saran and Monghyr. The statement showing the rainfall in different districts is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operation.—Transplantation of winter rice was completed. Weeding of winter paddy and harvesting of bhadoi crops continued.

III. State of standing crops.—The standing crops were generally doing well. Agricultural prospects improved in Cuttack, Balasore and Manbhum owing to good showers received during the month, but more rain was wanted in Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, the 24-Parganas, Jessore, Champaran, Angul and Puri.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn of harvests.—Prospects of the aman paddy are good so far. The outturn of the bhadoi crops has been fair in most districts.

V. Damage to crops.—There was no serious damage during the month under report by any natural calamity. Some injury was, however, done to autumn crops by excessive rain in Hazaribagh. Floods did some damage to winter paddy on lowlying tracts in parts of Murshidabad. The newly transplanted paddy was reported to be suffering for want of rain in part of Hooghly. Prospects have improved in this district by the recent rainfall.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—The condition of cattle was on the whole good. Cases of cattle-disease were reported from Midnapore, 24-Parganas, Nadia, Murshidabad, Patna, Gaya, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Purnea and all the districts of the Orissa and Chota Nagpur Divisions except Balasore, Puri and Singhbhum.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—The supply of fodder and water was sufficient throughout the Province except in parts of Murshidabad, where insufficiency of fodder was reported in the early part of the month.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month under review the price of rice rose in nine and fell in six districts It varied from 9 seers a rupee in Darjeeling to 14½ seers in Champaran.

IX. Condition of agricultural people.—The condition of agricultural population was, on the whole, satisfactory.

ROAD CESS.

Dated Calcutta, the 27th October 1911.

RESOLUTION.

Receipts and Expenditure of the District Road Funds in the districts of Darjeeling, Singhbhum and Sonthal Parganas during 1910-11.

READ—

Annual Reports and Accounts for the year 1910-11.

Read again—

Annual Reports and Accounts of the District Road Funds for the previous year and the review thereon.

The opening credit balance of the year was Rs. 45,186, and the total receipts of the District Road Committees from all sources amounted to Rs. 2,65,627. The total amount available for expenditure was thus Rs. 3,10,813, of which Rs. 2,75,627 was spent, leaving a credit balance of Rs. 35,186 only at the close of the year. The closing balance in the district of Darjeeling was excessive.

2. A number of bridges were built, several new roads constructed, and existing roads improved, at a cost of Rs. 76,004.

3. The total expenditure on repairs was Rs. 87,798. One thousand eight hundred and ten miles of district roads and 42 miles of village roads were maintained.

4. Rupees 961 were spent in planting and maintaining trees on road-sides and in nursery gardens in the districts of Singhbhum and the Sonthal Parganas.

5. The expenditure on establishment amounted to Rs. 30,853.

In the Darjeeling district no engineer was employed. All the works and repairs in the hills of the district and most of those in the Terai were executed by the members of the committee and other private gentlemen, to whom the thanks of Government are due for their assistance.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution, together with the Annual Accounts of the District Road Funds and abstracts from the reports of the Chairmen of the District Road Committees, be published in Part II of the Calcutta Gazette.

Ordered, also, that a copy of the Resolution, together with the Annual Accounts of the District Road Funds and abstracts from the reports of the Chairmen of the District Road Committees, be forwarded for information to the—

Commissioners of the Bhagalpur and Chota Nagpur Divisions.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council,

B. K. FINNIMORE,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Extract from letter No. 445 L.S.-G., dated the 26th June 1911, from E. H. C. Walsh, Esq., I.C.S., Commissioner of the Bhagalpur Division, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

2. The attention of the Deputy Commissioner and Chairman, District Road Committee, was again drawn to the remarks made by Government about the large balance standing to the credit of the Road Fund, as a result the closing balance has been reduced from Rs. 22,650-15-1 to Rs. 14,135-4-8. As reported by the Deputy Commissioner and Chariman, the cash balance is proposed to be reduced to Rs. 2,987 as estimated in the budget estimate for 1911-12.

3. The number of meetings held by the District Road Committee and the Terai Branch Committee was only 3 and 4, respectively, as compared with 4 and 6 of the preceding year, but they appear to have been sufficient to dispose of the work of the Committees.

4. The report does not call for other special remarks.

Abstract of the Report by the Chairman, District Road Committee of Darjeeling, on the operations of the District Road Fund of the District for the year 1910-11.

[Vide letter No. 48 R.F., dated 30th May 1911, from H. T. S. Forrest, Esq., I.C.S., Chairman of the District Road Committee, Darjeeling, to the Commissioner of the Bhagalpur Division.]

1. Working of Committees.—(a) District Road Committee.—The total number of the members of the Committee was 18, of which 6 were official and 12 non-official. Three meetings were held during the year The average attendance was 11, or 61·11 per cent. at a meeting.

The total sum of Rs. 74,182-3-11, including the outstanding advance Rs. 8,918-3-11, was available for expenditure during the year. The actual expenditure during the year (1910-11) was Rs. 44,027-12, leaving a cash balance of Rs. 14,135-4—8 and an unadjusted advance of Rs. 16,019-3-3. The closing balance was more than one quarter's kist. A part of this sum was spent during the year, but no account having been received, it could not be adjusted. However, it is hoped that the cash balance will be reduced to a reasonable amount as estimated in the budget estimate for 1911-12.

RECEIPTS.

3. Provincial Rates.—The road cess was levied during the year 1910-11 in the district at the maximum rate of 6 pies in the rupee. The total collection under the head "Cess on lands" during the year 1910-11 was Rs. 25,229-10-10 against Rs. 22,746-6-8 of peceding year (1909-10). The increase was due to revaluation.

4. Miscellaneous.—A sum of annas 9 only was credited under this head on account of sale proceeds of waste forms, etc.

5. CONTRIBUTION.—(a) Grant from Government.—A sum of Rs. 10,263-13-1 was received under this head during the year, including Rs. 5,189 on account of augmentation of resources of the Committee against Rs. 7,180-8 of the preceding year (1909-10). The increase was mainly due to the Government share of cost of the Road and Public Works Cess joint Establishment and the revaluation works of the previous years received during the year.

(b) A contribution of Rs. 7,119 was received from the Darjeeling Improvement Fund as last year (1909-10) towards communication and share of the cost of the Joint Cess and Tauzi Establishment.

(c) No. contribution from private persons and other sources was received during 1910-11.

EXPENDITURE.

6. Original Works.—A sum of Rs. 2,773-0-9 was spent under this head out of the estimated cost of Rs. 11,951 for three bridges. The bridge over Dilaram Jhora at Margaret's Hope Tea Estate has practically been completed, but no account having been received, it could not be charged to the accounts of the year.

7. Repairs.—The total sum of Rs. 27,113-11-9, as per details below, was spent under this head against Rs. 52,454-7 of the preceding year. The decrease is mainly due to the fact that a heavy sum was charged during the year (1909-10) for metalling the first six miles of Road No. 32 (Naxalbari to Dabigunge viâ Kharibari) :—

Extract from letter No. 579 J., dated the 15th June 1911, from H. J. MACINTOSH, ESQ., I.C.S., Commissioner of the Chota Nagpur Division, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

* * * * * * *

2. I observe that only seven meetings were held during the year 1910-11 against nine in the preceding year. The Chairman reports that meetings were not held at monthly intervals as there was not always business to place before the Committee. I am unable to accept this explanation as satisfactory. Last year, it was pointed out to the Chairman that if the members of the Committee take proper interest in their work, it is hardly possible that sufficient business should not be forthcoming for their consideration and disposal. I am again drawing the attention of the Chairman to these remarks.

3. The average percentage of attendance of the members of the Committee at meetings was, however, more satisfactory, being 47·6 against 37·03 at the nine meetings in the previous year.

4. The Committee appear to have made good use of the funds at their disposal during the year, which closed with a credit balance of Rs. 4,796 against Rs. 14,303 in the preceding year.

Abstract of the Report by the Chairman, District Road Committee of Singhbhum, on the operations of the District Road Fund of the district for the year 1910-11.

(Vide letter No. 20 R.C., dated 19th May 1911, from A. W. Cook, Esq., I.C.S., Chairman, District Road Committee, Singhbhum, to the Commissioner of the Chota Nagpur Division.)

1. Working of the Committee.—There were 15 members of the Committee (five official and 10 non-official). Seven meetings were held during the year. The average percentage of attendance of the members of the Committee was 47·6 against 37·03 at nine meetings in the previous year. Meetings at monthly intervals were not held, as there was not always business to place before the Committee.

2. The Examiner of Local Accounts, Bengal, has audited the accounts up to February 1911, and the members of the audit Sub-Committee appointed under section 174 of the Cess Act have audited for the whole year.

RECEIPTS.

3. The road-cess was levied at the maximum rate of 6 pies in the rupee. The opening balance of the year was Rs. 14,303, and the total receipts from all sources amounted to Rs. 43,567. The total amount available for expenditure was thus Rs. 57,870, of which Rs. 53,074 was spent, leaving a credit balance of Rs. 4,796, which was less than one quarter's kist. Out of the said cash balance of Rs. 4,796, a sum of Rs. 2,023 was on account of security deposits not withdrawn by contractors within the year.

EXPENDITURE.

4. Original works—Communications.—During the year a sum of Rs. 24,358 was spent under this head. Out of the Rs. 5,000 received from Government for the construction of Inspection bungalows in the Kolhan Government estate, a sum of Rs. 4,425 was spent up to last year (1909-10) and the balance (Rs. 575) spent during the year.

5. Repairs—Communications.—The total expenditure on repairs was Rs. 9,981. Out of 32 unmetalled roads comprising a total length of 445 miles 7 furlongs and 204 yards, only 12 roads, comprising a total length of 183 miles, were maintained during the year, against 272 miles in the previous year.

6. The following statement shows the length of district roads (metalled, unmetalled and village roads), the amount spent on the maintenance of the roads, and the cost per mile :—

No roads are maintained by the District Road Committee from Public Works funds.

7. Arboriculture.—270 new trees were planted during the year. These, together with 1,325 unestab ished plants of the preceding year, were maintained at a cost of Rs. 366, the allotment being Rs. 350.

8. Nursery.—There are 4 nursery gardens. The garden at Chaibassa on the south bank of the Jubilee tank contains 500 plants, and that at Bhoya 25 plants.

9. No famine-relief works were done during the year.

Extract from letter No. 496 L.S.-G., dated the 7th July 1911, from E. H. C. WALSH, ESQ., I.C.S., Commissioner of the Bhagalpur Division, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

2. The closing balance which stood at the low figure of Rs. 8,232 in the preceding year, was raised to Rs. 16,255 in the year 1910-11.

3. The average percentage of attendance of the members of the Committee at meetings was 43·88 against 52·75 in the previous year. The falling-off in the attendance is to be regretted.

Abstract of the Report by the Chairman, District Road Committee of the Sonthal Parganas, on the operations of the District Road Fund of the district for the year 1910-11.

[Vide letter No. 192P W., dated 27th May 1911, from H. Ll. L. Allanson Esq., I.C.S., Chairman of the District Road Committee of Sonthal Parganas, to the Commissioner of the Bhagalpur Division.]

Working of the Committee.—There was no change in the constitution of the Committee during the year It consisted of 9 members, of whom 3 were ex-officio and the rest non-official. The latter consisted of landed proprietors or their managers. The Committee held 21 meetings during the year, against 18 in the previous year; of these 7 were special, 13 ordinary and one meeting had to be adjourned for want of a quorum. The average attendance of members was 4·40, against 4·22 in the year before, and the percentage of average attendance was 43·88 against 52·75. There was a slight improvement in the attendance of the members, but still it leaves much to be desired. The low attendance of the members was due to (1) one member absenting himself for six months on the ground of ill-health, (2) one vacancy in the membership not having been filled up till five months had elapsed, and (3) delay in the appointment of new members in place of two members who resigned in the course of the year

RECEIPTS.

2. The year opened with a cash balance of Rs. 8,232. The total receipts of the Committee from all sources amounted to Rs. 1,55.983 and the expenditure to Rs. 1,47,960, leaving a closing balance of Rs. 16,255 at the end of the year. The balance includes Rs. 1,500, being private donation for a specific work and Rs 2,700 being the unspent balance of Government grant and private subscription for constructing upper Primary school buildings in the district. The following table compares the receipts under several heads of the year with those in the previous year:—

	Deposit	1,363	1,039
	Total ...	1,46,599	1,55,983

3. Land Revenue.—There is a considerable decrease in the receipt under Government grant owing to (1) the final withdrawal of the grant varying from Rs. 18,000 to Rs. 20,000 a year, hitherto made to the Committee out of the Provincial share of the Forest revenue accruing in the district, and (2) the falling-off (from Rs. 7,636 to Rs. 6,903) in the contribution for Miscellaneous public improvements in Government estates. Partly to make up the heavy loss of income under this head, the Committee received a grant of Rs. 10,000 from the accumulated funds of the Hirunpur and Sahebganj cattle markets.

4. Provincial rates.—The road cess was levied at the maximum rate of 6 pies in the rupee and the cess receipt during the year was better by Rs. 14,753 than the amount provided in the budget. The increase is due to the levy of cess on Ambar, Sultanabad and some petty estates, the valuation of which was completed during the year. The valuation work in the district is practically complete, and re-valuation of some estates has recently been started. It is not, however, expected that the income of the Committee will undergo any marked change in the near future from this source.

5. Law and Justice.—The large increase under the head "Fees, Fines, etc.," is due to the imposition of fines on several contractors, who either failed to complete their contracted works in time or did bad work.

6 Miscellaneous.—Rupees 37 credited to this head represents the amount realized from sale of agreement forms and the excess interest on the Provident Fund deposit withdrawn.

7. Civil Works.—There was a considerable increase in the income of the Committee from "Ferry tolls," and it is due partly to the realization of arrears due for the previous year and mainly to the effort of the Subdivisional Officer, Dumka, to sell the three ferries, Hijla, Bedia and Bijoypur under his management to some advantage. The receipt under "Staging Bungalows" fell much short of that realized in the previous year, and the decrease is due to the fact that in the year before a sum of Rs. 628 was realized on account of arrear rent from the Maheshpur estate. Rupees 1,628 was received during the year from private sources for specific works against Rs. 7,689 in the preceding year. Of this, Rs. 1,500 represents a voluntary donation made by Rai Mahabir Prasad Bahadur of Chapra for construction of a well in the Deoghur mela ground. This work, when completed, will prove of utmost utility to the large gathering of pilgrims visiting the place througout the year, especially during the mela period, and the thanks of the committee are due to the Rai Bahadur for this token of his benevolence and public spirit. Of the balance, Rs. 70 was received from Mr. Grant of Dumka estate, for the remainder of his donation of Rs. 1,570 for the Ghormara bridge near Sahebganj, and Rs. 58 from Babu Tulsi Mandal of Deoghur for a culvert on the 30th mile of Dumka-Deoghur road.

8. The variation in the receipt under "Government grant" is not such as to call for any special remarks.

9. The small increase under "Other miscellaneous sub-heads" is purely incidental. There were larger collections under "rent of lands" sale of "stores and materials" and "sale-proceeds of trees, grass" etc., while there was a considerable decrease under "Miscellaneous proper."

11. Land revenue.—The total expenditure under this head was Rs. 28,043, against Rs. 32,112 in the previous year. There is a considerable decrease under "Original works" with a corresponding increase under "Repairs." In the preceding year, it was found necessary to curtail the usual maintenance allotment of the listed roads, in order to find money to pay for the several original works then in progress—a step that was inevitable owing to the withholding of the grant of Rs. 60,000 in 1908-09. The matter was partly set right during the year by making as much provision as possible for repair works by cutting down the allotment for original works to the narrowest limit possible. The increase under "Agricultural improvement" is due to the fact that the full allotment of Rs. 2,000 was not spent in the year before, the bulk of the money allotted remaining with the disbursing officers as unadjusted advances which had only been accounted for during the year. Several irrigation bandhs and tanks were either constructed or re-excavated in the Damin during the year. They will be very useful as irrigation works and indirectly help in improving the village water-supply. Rupees 137 spent under "Miscellaneous" consists of the amount paid on account of compensation for the land taken up for the extension of Borio Bazar and that paid for some boundary pillars for the Dumka Damin.

12. Provincial rates.—There was no expenditure under "Valuation charges" against Rs. 159 in the previous year.

13. Administration.—Rupees 1,595 was spent on account of "Establishment and contingencies" of the Committee's office, against Rs. 1,391 in the previous year. The increase is due to the permanent Accountant drawing higher salary having been employed throughout the year, while in the previous year he only worked for two months or so. There was no payment on account of grain compensation allowance during 1910-11. Rupees 25, was, however, paid for the first time as travelling allowance to one of the Committee's members.

14. Medical.—There are no medical institutions under the Committee. Rupees 77 was, however, spent through the Civil Surgeon, Dumka, on account of transit charges for the despatch of quinine packets from the district depôt to mufassil vendors, in connection with the new scheme for popularising the sale of quinine in malarial tracts.

15. Veterinary charges.—Rupees 246 spent under this head, represents the Committee's annual contribution towards the travelling allowance of the Veterinary Assistant at Dumka, and the entertainment of an itinerant Veterinary Assistant at Sahebganj.

16. Superannuation allowance and pension.—There is only one pensioner under the Committee, and Rs. 240 was paid for his pension at the sanctioned rate of Rs. 20 per mensem. The decrease under "Provident Fund Contribution," is owing to the fact that, in the previous year, the contribution was paid on the back salary of certain officers confirmed in their respective appointments.

17. Stationery and Printing.—The fluctuation in the expenditure under this head is not such as to need any special remark.

18. Miscellaneous.—Rupees 294 was spent under this head: Rs. 260 paid to the District Engineer on account of his remuneration realized from the several Court of Wards' estates for the work done by him on their account, and the balance for the purchase of blank cheque-books for use in the Committee's office.

19. Civil Buildings New work.—Out of the total amount of Rs. 5,087 spent under this head, Rs. 4,078 was expended towards constructing Upper Primary School buildings, out of the grant placed at the disposal of the Committee by the Education Department, and the balance Rs. 1,009 towards re-roofing the Road office building with Raniganj tiles.

20. Civil Buildings—Repairs.—Rupees 131 spent under this head was on account of annual repairs done to the Road Committee's Office building and godown.

21. Communication—New works.—The expenditure under this head amounts to Rs. 33,782 against Rs. 32,939 in the year before. Nearly two-thirds of the amount was spent on the works in progress from the preceding year, and the balance on the works started for the first time during the year. The works of most importance carried out during the year under "Land Revenue" and "Road Fund" are noted below with the amount spent on each—

LAND REVENUE

		Rs.
1.	Sahebganj-Banjhi road	6,074
2.	Constructing Bhora bridge	2,832
3.	Improving Mandro-Boarijore road	714

5.	Ditto Bahwa-Burhait road	2,306

2.	Ditto last five miles of Dumka-Pakour road ...	1,081
3.	Ditto Godda-Hansdiha road	4,864
4.	Ditto Dumka-Rampurhat road	767
5.	Constructing Ghormara bridge near Sahebganj	2,791
6.	Improving Dumka-Madhupur road	1,856
7.	Flood damage repairs to and extension of Hardia causeway ...	922
8.	Constructing Nanger bridge	1,370
9.	Improving Pakour-Hirunpur road	3,098
10.	Ditto Sanghata bridge	676

22. The general improvement effected in the communication during the year was in the nature of filling in the existing gaps by the construction of bridges and culverts, and gravelling and stone-metalling worst portions of certain important roads, over which the traffic is very heavy. The important bridges completed are Ghormara, Nanger, Bhora and certain minor bridges on Dumka-Madhupur road, and those at Debpur on Pakour-Hirunpur road, and two others on Amrapara-Muraroi road are in the course of construction. The Hardia causeway was almost completed during the year. The Godda-Hansdiha road has been gravelled throughout and bridged with the exception of two big gaps at Poraya and Ghunghusa. This is now one of the best roads in the district, and its importance may increase if the Bhagalpur-Bansi Railway reaches Hansdiha. The two unbridged rivers are likely to remain so for some time, especially the river at Poraya. It is not worth while considering the bridging of these rivers until the Railway comes to Hansdiha. The improvement of three Rajmahal roads, Sahebganj-Banjhi, Tinpahar-Borio and Barhawa-Barhait was continued and portions of them were stone-metalled during the year.

23. Communication—Repairs.—Rupees 41,687 was spent in the maintenance of the scheduled roads, against Rs. 34,109 in the previous year. The increase is due partly to the payment of the previous year's liabilities and partly to the larger allotments sanctioned for repairing the more important roads which were only partially repaired in the previous year for want of funds. The three new roads, namely—(1) Ramgarh-Hansdiha, (2) Shahabad-Bhagaya, (3) Baromasia-Asanboni were taken on to the district schedule. They were really not new at all, being old public roads, and were being maintained in a manner by the zemindars through whose estates and the rayats through whose villages they pass, except Bhagaya-Shahabad which was one of the listed Damin roads maintained formerly out of the Estate Improvement Fund. Of the 48 scheduled district roads, the one numbered 21, Kumrabad road was, as before, maintained by the zemindar of Belpatta. Of the others, the important ones were kept in thorough repairs for general traffic throughout the year and the unimportant kutcha roads in passable condition, as only fair weather tracts.

24. The total mileage of district roads were 888 against 852 in the previous year, the increase is due to the 3 new roads being added on to the schedule. Of this, 27½ miles were metalled and the rest unmetalled. The total number of scheduled village roads was the same as in the previous year, with a total mileage of 33. Besides the four scheduled village roads, the non-scheduled Damin roads were also maintained in proper repair as far as funds would permit. The expenditure on repair is classified in the following table:—

25. Railway feeder roads.—The Railway feeder roads in the district under improvement are (a) Sahebgunj-Banjhi road, (b) Tinpahar-Borio road, (c) Bahwa-Burhait road, (d) Pakour-Hirunpur road, (e) Amrapara Muraroi road and (f) Dumka Rampurhat road. These roads are being improved with cutting side drains, banking and bridging where necessary, and being gravelled or stone-metalled gradually as funds permit. They will be of great public utility when completed.

26. Famine Relief.—No famine relief works were taken up during the year, no necessity arising.

27. Establishment—The expenditure was Rs. 23,413 against Rs. 24,108 in the previous year. The decrease is mainly due to no temporary establishment being maintained during the year, while 2 temporary Sub-Overseers were employed throughout the previous year to look after the original works The following table shows the amount spent on establishment and the percentage of its cost on the expenditure on Civil works:—

YEAR.	Outlay on works.	Outlay on establishment employed on works.	Percentage.

28. Petty Establishment.—Rupees 338 was spent on account of cost of establishment and contingencies of the three dák bungalows under the Committee at Dumka, Rajmahal and Sahebgunj.

29. Village sanitation.—Rupees 60 was paid to the Sanitation Committee, Rajmahal, as the Committee's annual contribution for sanitary works in Rajmahal town. The village sanitation in the district was, on the whole, satisfactory. The country being undulating, special sanitary arrangements are not very necessary except in low-lying tracts in Pakour and Rajmahal. The people generally, specially the Sonthals themselves, look to the removal of village refuse. The Subdivisional Officers in the district generally look after the village sanitation, while on tour The financial condition of the District Road Fund with increasing needs of improved communication, does not admit of any special grant being made for improvement of the village sanitation. All that the Committee can do and are doing is to help it indirectly by supply of comparatively pure water from the wells, bandhs, tanks, either nearly excavated or improved by re excavation.

30. Tools and plant.—The expenditure under this head was Rs. 716 against Rs. 843 in the previous year.

31. Arboriculture.—Rupees 595 was spent on arboriculture mainly in making gabions to protect young plants: 10 malis were entertained throughout the year to carry out the plantings and look after the old plants still under protection. Besides, 32 Damin Bungalow mali-chaukidars also helped in the arboricultural work. in addition to their duties as Bungalow chaukidars. The nurseries exist at suitable intervals along the principal roads, in most cases within the compounds of Inspection and the Damin Bungalows, each being in charge of a mali. 1,950 young plants were planted during the year all of which are being protected by some sort of guards. No definite working plan was followed as none has yet been prepared for the district. On the whole arboriculture is more or less of a failure.

32. Water supply and water works.—Rupees 265 was spent in sinking a well at Rasikpur, a suburb of Dumka, when there was an epidemic of cholera, in order to provide a supply of wholesome water to the locality. Rupees 190 was spent in clearing silt of three old Moghul wells at Sirsi, Nawabdehri and Moghulghat in Rajmahal, out of the special grant sanctioned by the Commissioner. They will greatly benefit the hât people, neighbouring villagers and the public in general. Besides, Rs. 4,313 was spent under "Land Revenue," in sinking wells, excavating new tanks and bandhs, and improving the existing ones in the Damin Government estates. The supply of water is sufficient throughout the district except a few villages in Dumka and Pakour subdivisions, and the existing sources are enough for the ordinary purposes.

A statement showing the thana totals of water-supply (Form No. 1) for the several subdivisions is given below.

Addition to section 48 of same Act.

"or

(e) any wrong payment or delay in payment of a money order beyond the limits of British India by an officer of any post office, not being one established by the Governor General in Council."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Experience has shown that the existing Post Office Act, which was enacted in 1898, fails in certain respects to give adequate powers to the postal authorities to deal with articles posted in contravention of the Act. The present Bill is designed to give such further powers as are required, and at the same time to remove certain obscurities and to remedy such minor defects as have been found to exist. An explanation of the several amendments which it is proposed to make is given in the subjoined Notes on Clauses.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 2.—There are certain isolated localities where the cost of carrying the parcel traffic very considerably exceeds the receipts from such traffic. The object of the amendment is to enable the Post Office to increase rates on parcels in such particular localities, where it is found that the maximum rates allowed under the existing Act are unremunerative. The English Post Office Act fixes no maximum rates for the parcel post. It is considered that the object in view can most simply be attained by erasing the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 7. A corollary to this is the erasure of sub-section (2) of section 7 and of the First Schedule.

Clause 3.—It is considered advisable to provide for the issue of rules to prohibit the transmission by post of circulars relating to lotteries, and to prohibit or restrict the transmission by post of coin, bullion or any other articles of a specified description. At present there is no prohibition of the transmission of circulars relating to lotteries, although the publication of such circulars is an offence under section 294-A of the Indian Penal Code. The transmission of gold coin or bullion is limited by executive orders, but it is desired to provide expressly for the issue of rules to cover such cases. These objects will be attained by the addition of the new sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) to sub-section (2) of section 21 of the existing Act.

The addition of sub-clause (f) has been made in order to make it possible to provide by rule for the imposition of a fee for an enquiry regarding the disposal of a postal article of any class. It has been found that a great deal of labour and trouble is caused to post offices and audit offices by the investigation of complaints relating to unregistered value-payable articles, a large majority of which ultimately prove to be groundless. In the British Post Office an enquiry fee of 2*d.* is charged for each enquiry into the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered article, on the condition that the fee will be refunded if it is found that the Post Office has been in fault. It is considered advisable to adopt a similar procedure in India with regard to value-payable articles, but the amendment has been so worded as to enable the principle of an enquiry fee to be extended, if necessary, to postal articles of any class.

Clause 4.—The amendment of section 23 (2) so as to allow the opening of any newspaper, book, pattern or sample packet suspected to have been sent in contravention of section 20 (a) of the Act is necessary to render the prohibitions laid down under section 20 effective. The necessity for this amendment arose from the powerlessness of the Post Office to stop the circulation of an extremely indecent pamphlet recently published, inasmuch as the Act does not allow the postal authorities to open any article suspected to have been sent in contravention of section 20. In the United Kingdom the Post Office has the power to open any postal article to ascertain whether it contains indecent matter, but it is considered that in India the opening of newspapers and book, pattern or sample packets only should be permitted for this purpose. Letters and parcels will not be affected.

The provisions of section 23 (3) (b) of the existing Act are not satisfactory. Under them the Post Master General is constituted the authority which shall decide whether an article is or is not indecent or obscene, or whether words written thereon are or are not seditious. It is considered advisable to relieve the postal authorities of this responsibility, and to substitute a provision enabling the Governor General in Council to make rules for the treatment of articles which are considered by the postal authorities to have been sent in contravention of section 20.

Clause 5.—The absence of any definition of "contraband goods" in the existing Act has been repeatedly felt, and it is proposed to substitute a defining phrase, making it clear that the provisions of section 24 are applicable to goods of which the import or transmission by post has been prohibited under the Excise, Opium or other laws.

Clause 6.—This clause makes an addition to section 25 of the Act to make it clear that the power to search conferred by that section includes the power to open or unfasten any newspaper or any book, pattern or sample packet in course of transmission by post suspected to contain goods of any specified description, with respect to which a notification has been published under section 19 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878. The present law leaves it doubtful whether the power to search includes the power to open, although it has indeed been held to include the power to open any postal article. It is desirable to make the law definite on this point, and at the same time to limit the power to open specifically to newspapers, book, pattern or sample packets. The power will not extend to letters and parcels, although the postal authorities will have power to hand over unopened to the Customs authorities postal articles which they are not permitted to open, but which they have good reason to believe to contain prohibited goods. A further defect in the existing law is that it empowers the postal authorities to deliver to such officer as the Governor General in Council may appoint only the goods found and not the postal articles containing the goods.

Clause 7.—This clause amends the last words of section 26 (1) by providing that the order for the disposal of intercepted articles should be passed by the authority sanctioning their interception. At present while a Local Government or an officer specially authorised in this behalf by the Governor General in Council can order the interception of a postal article, the directions as to its disposal have to be issued by the Governor General in Council. This procedure is cumbrous and unnecessary, and it is considered that the Local Government or the officer empowered to intercept postal articles should be authorised to dispose of them.

Clause 8.—As the law stands, it is illegal to withhold from the sender of a value-payable article payment of the money received from the addressee, even if the article may have obviously been sent to defraud the addressee. It is necessary that there should be some provision enabling the Post Office to withhold payment in such cases, and the object of the amendments introduced by clause 9 is to enable the Governor General in Council to make rules authorising a Post Master General—

(1) to withhold the payment to the sender of a value-payable article of the money received from the addressee, if the latter complains, immediately on receipt, that the article was sent fraudulently, and if there are good grounds for believing such complaint to be justified, and

(2) to order the return of the value-payable article to the sender and the refund to the addressee of the money received from him, if the Post Master General is fully satisfied, after enquiry has been made, that the article was fraudulently sent.

Clause 9.—The object of this clause is to exempt the Secretary of State from liability in cases of wrong payment, or delay in payment, beyond the limits of British India of a money order issued by the Post Office of India. The necessity for the amendment has been established by a recent judgment against the Secretary of State in a case where it was admitted that payment had been made to the wrong person through no fault of the Indian Post Office but owing to a want of care and caution on the part of a foreign Post Office.

Delegation of powers to make to include delegation of powers to add to, amend, vary or rescind.

7. Where a notification has been issued under the provisions of section 2 or section 3 delegating a power to issue notifications, orders, rules or bye-laws, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided in such notification, the power so delegated includes a power exerciseable in the like manner and subject to the like sanction and conditions, if any, to add to, amend, vary or rescind any notifications, orders, rules or bye-laws so issued.

Continuation of orders, etc., issued by authority whose power is delegated.

8. Where any notification is issued under the provisions of section 2 or section 3, then, unless it is otherwise expressly provided in such notification, any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law already made or issued by the authority whose power is delegated, shall continue in force and be deemed to have been issued by the authority to which the power is delegated unless and until it is superseded by any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or bye-law made or issued by that authority.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE Royal Commission on Decentralization pointed out, in paragraph 409 of their Report, that the proposals which they made in the direction of decentralization would, in existing circumstances, entail a large amount of continuous amending legislation, in order to permit of the delegation to a lower authority of powers and duties now vested by law in a higher authority. To give effect to their proposals, with a minimum of legislation of a petty character, they recommended, in paragraph 416 of their Report, the enactment of a general Act of Delegation, which would permit of the transmission of powers and functions by notifications of the Government of India or of the local Government, as the case might be.

The Commission made this recommendation after considering the alternative of a general Decentralization Act or Acts, which would specify in schedules the specific powers under particular Acts to be delegated, and after taking into account the opinions of Local Governments on both alternatives. They concluded that, subject to certain safeguards, mentioned in paragraph 416 of their Report, there could be no objection to a system of delegation of powers and duties by notification.

To the safeguards suggested by the Royal Commission, others have been added by the Government of India. All such safeguards are shown in clause 5 of the Bill. Moreover, the Bill specially excludes from its purview (vide clause 4)—.

(a) powers or duties conferred by the Codes of Civil and Criminal Procedure, and by the several enactments relating to the constitution of Civil Courts; and

(b) powers conferred by any enactment on a superior authority to sanction or consent to the exercise by an inferior authority of any powers conferred on such authority by such enactment.

The Bill is designed, in short, to facilitate delegation in respect of non-controversial matters.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

IN 1905 a Committee was appointed by the Government of India to investigate the excise-administration of each Province, and to suggest such alterations in the law as might be desirable to suit local conditions.

In connection with this investigation the Committee was instructed to consider whether the various defects in the Excise Act, 1896 (XII of 1896), which had been brought to notice, rendered it desirable that the Act in question should be completely repealed, and, if so, to indicate the main lines on which fresh legislation was required. The Committee after a full investigation decided in favour of repeal. They pointed out that the Act was unsuited to modern conditions, and that it was an obstacle in the way of improved methods of excise-administration. They were of opinion that a fresh enactment of general application, which should proceed on the lines of the Madras Abkari Act, I of 1886, should be passed.

The Government of India accepted the conclusions of the Excise Committee as to the necessity for a new enactment, and approved of the lines upon which the Committee suggested that the new Act should be framed. Instead, however, of passing an Act of general application, they decided that each Province should undertake legislation for itself, as by this means the conditions peculiar to each particular Province could be suitably provided for.

For the Central Provinces, which does not possess a legislature of its own, the Government of India decided to legislate in the Imperial Legislative Council, and a draft Bill embodying the Committee's suggestions, with such modifications as the Government of India considered necessary, was accordingly drawn up in 1907. This draft has since formed the subject of consideration by the Government of India in consultation with the Chief Commissioner of the Central Provinces, and has undergone considerable revision on the basis of the Excise Acts recently passed for Bengal, Eastern Bengal and Assam and the United Provinces.

U. P. Act IV of 19

The present Bill embodies the result of the above revision. When it has been passed, it is proposed to apply its provisions in whole or in part, as local circumstances may require, to the minor Provinces of Ajmer-Merwara, British Baluchistan and Coorg, and also to the Province of Berar, the Agency territories in Baluchistan and the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore in the exercise of the foreign jurisdiction of the Governor General in Council.
